2006 COLORADO FOOTBALL: GAME 5 — MISSOURI

Saturday, September 30 at Columbia (10:40 a.m. MDT; Fox Sports Network/Regional)

RELEASE NUMBER 5 (September 25, 2006)

QUICKLY SPEAKING...

The Colorado Buffaloes (0-4, 0-0 Big 12) remain on the road this week, beginning their 11th season of Big 12 Conference play in Columbia, Mo., to face the No. 25 (AP; No. 24 Harris Interactive) Missouri Tigers (4-0, 0-0 SEC) this Saturday, September 30, in a 10:30 a.m. kickoff at Memorial Stadium/Faurot Field... Fox Sports Net will broadcast the game on a regional basis, with Bill Land (play-by-play), Gary Reasons (analyst) and Emily Jones (sidelines) to be on hand to call the action... Colorado is coming of a heartbreaking 14-13 loss at No. 9 Georgia, a game the Buffs dominated throughout until UGA came up with the game winning score with 46 seconds remaining (CU led for 48:00, UGA just that 0:46)... The Buffs take a 20-5 record since 2001 against Big 12 North rivals into this weekend... CU is coming off a heartbreaking 14-13 loss at Georgia, its eighth straight loss (the last four of '05 and first three this season); it is Colorado's first eight-game losing streak since Eddie Crowder's first two CU teams endured a 10-game skid over the 1963-64 seasons... CU's 41-12 win over Missouri last November 5 was the last CU victory... There will be no television broadcast of the Oct. 7 Baylor game in Boulder, thus kickoff for the contest will be 1:30 p.m.; it is part of CU's annual homecoming weekend... CU's website, www.CUBuffs.com features game day updates and live stats for all games.

EERIE SIMILARITY

Twenty years ago, Colorado opened the 1986 season with an 0-4 mark; after falling to Colorado State 23-7 at home, the Buffs then lost the next there by a combined total of eight points (32-30 at Oregon, 13-10 at Ohio State, and 24-21 at Arizona, watching the Wildcats score the last 12 points of the game in the latter, with the winning touchdown a 67-yard pass play with 4:45 left). CU righted the ship back then at the start of Big Eight Conference play, eventually reeling off five straight wins, including a benchmark victory over No. 3 Nebraska, and wound up playing Oklahoma for the league title and Orange Bowl berth. Fast forward to 2006: CU is 0-4 for just the second time since '86, with three of the losses by a total of 14 points including a 14-13 setback at No. 9 Georgia, where the Bulldogs scored all their points in the fourth quarter to steal a win away from CU. Back in '86, CU started league play with a 17-12 win at Missouri, the same site for the '06 Big 12 Conference opener.

STAT OF THE WEEK

CU is 14-4 since 1993 the following game after succumbing to a top 10 team the previous week; Georgia was No. 9 in the polls prior to its 14-13 come-from-behind win over the Buffaloes. Sort of along the same lines, beating CU has been the death knell for the first three teams on the Buff schedule this year, as they are a combined 0-6 since toppling Colorado.

OBSCURE NOTE OF THE WEEK

To say that rushing yards might be at a premium this week could be an understatement. Missouri, ranked fifth nationally against the run in allowing 43.8 yards per game, has limited its opponents to 1.59 yards per carry; Colorado is ranked 16th, as foes have averaged 75.3 yards per outing and just 2.26 yards per attempt. Missouri's four opponents are averaging 129.1 rushing yards combined against teams other than the Tigers, while Colorado's quartet is averaging 128.2 minus games against the Buffs. CU has faced slightly better running teams to date (Arizona State at No. 30, Georgia No. 64, CSU No. 107) than MU (Mississippi is No. 57, New Mexico No. 92, Ohio No. 113); each has played a I-AA opponent.

MEDIA SERVICES

- Coach Dan Hawkins holds a Tuesday press luncheon in the Dal Ward Athletic Center, starting at 11:30 a.m. with lunch, followed by Hawkins beginning the interview session promptly at Noon. This year's dates: Sept. 5-12-19-26, Oct. 3-10-17-24-31, Nov. 7-20 (Monday)-28, Dec. TBA (bowl). NOTE that there are no organized press luncheons on Aug. 29 (prior to opener) and Nov. 14 (bye week). The press conference portion of the luncheon is streamed live on www.CUBuffs.com (in the Stampede Online area); all press conferences on CUBuffs.com are free and thus do not require access codes.
- Hawkins can be heard Mondays on the Big 12 Football Teleconference Call at 10:40 a.m. MT. All coaches participate; please call 706/679-2026 for access (media only—you must register). The teleconference replay is available after 2 p.m. MT the same day through www.Big12sports.com or for access, call 706/634-1618.
- Video highlights of CU football games are available Tuesdays on the Big 12 Conference's satellite highlights package, which can be found at Galaxy 3C, Transponder 21 (C-band), 4120 MHz vertical, standard audio 6.2-6.8 MHz between 2:30 and 3:30 p.m. MT from Aug. 29 through Dec. 5 (trouble number: 972/868-1862). Special requests can also be made through CU's BuffVision (Deric Swanson or Eric Pelloni: 303-735-3637).
- The Colorado lockerroom (home and road) is closed after games; following the customary 10-minute cooling off period, players will be made available (a list of players will be solicited immediately following the game; no cutoff to request players).
- Colorado's regular season football practices are closed to the general public (August 23 on; preseason practices prior are open) but are open to the media. The first 25 minutes of practices in-season are, however, open for photography (video) needs from the end zones and sidelines. Extensive parameters listed in CU media policies.
- This year's standard meeting/practice schedule (mountain time, pre-time change): Sunday (3:15-5:00, 5:15-6:15); Monday (off); Tuesday (2:30-3:40/4:00-6:15), Wednesday (2:30-3:40/4:00-6:15), Thursday (2:30-3:40/4:00-6:00), Friday (3:00-4:00, evening meetings).
- Interviews with Colorado players are allowed post-practice on Sundays, pre- and post-practice on Tuesdays and Wednesdays and pre-practice Thursdays (the cutoff moves up to pre-Wednesday practice for Friday games). Phone interviews with out-of-town media are allowed all four days in all time slots. Interviews on Mondays are at the discretion of the player, as it being the standard player day off (no meetings/practice), CU can't arrange due to NCAA rules.
- Collegepressbox.com is the official media website for Big 12 football. Access and download weekly game notes, statistics, media guides and more for the conference and each member school throughout the season. The conference office will distribute login information to accredited media, and media members can also apply for a password by e-mailing password@college-pressbox.com.
- CU On-Line Photo Database. The CU sports information service has an online photo database that allows registered members of the media instant access to print quality head shots of all CU coaches and student-athletes as well as action shots of key players. Registration is easy: for a login and password, simply log on to www.CUBuffs.com, select "Sports Information" from the "Athletic Department" menu located on the left navigation bar and follow the instructions.

THE BUFFALOES ON THE INTERNET

- Colorado has its information available to both the media and fans alike on the Internet. Visit the official CU site at www.CUBuffs.com for the latest information, releases, game notes and press conference broadcasts (free). "Stampede Online" offers the opportunity to listen and/or watch live game action of several CU athletic teams. Breaking news with the program will be found here first every time and delivered in full without others editing out what they might deem unessential.
- Yahoo.com is now the official site for subscription service for audio-only broadcasts, as all football and men's and women's basketball games will be streamed through Yahoo! Just visit the Game Day Live area of the site or link through the Yahoo! Button on the left side navigation bars.

THE BUFFALOES ON THE AIRWAYS

- KOA-Radio in Denver (850 AM) originates the 14-station CU Football Network, with sports director Mark Johnson in his third year as the play-by-play voice of the Buffs. Larry Zimmer (analysis) is in his 33rd season broadcasting Colorado football (he handled play-by-play from 1971-81 and 1985-2003). Former CU quarterback Charles Johnson (pre- and postgame shows/sidelines) is in his second year filling in for former CU All-American Bobby Anderson (who did 29 years of broadcasts but is on sabbatical at present as he resides full-time in California tending to a new business venture).
- Wednesdays at 7 p.m., the Dan Hawkins Show originates from The Millennium Harvest House Hotel in Boulder, with Mark Johnson and Zimmer hosting the program.
- Satellite Radio: Sirius Satellite Radio is home to Big 12 broadcasts (usually home network); the CU-MU broadcast will air on channels 158 (KOA) and 161 (MU).
- FOX Sports Net Rocky Mountain is the television home of the Buffaloes, as "The Buffalo Stampede" will be seen in the six-state FSN area every Thursday night at 6:30 p.m. (adjusted when the Colorado Rockies are playing in September). Assistant AD and former CU QB Charles Johnson hosts the program; the show will air August 24 through the end of basketball season for the men and/or women. FSN's "CU All Access" takes a behind the scenes look at the overall CU football program with the weekly show always airing on Tuesdays (10:00 p.m. on Sept. 19 and 26, with replays set for the following Wednesday at 6:30 a.m.—all times mountain).

IN THE POLLS

Colorado was not ranked in the Associated Press (media) or USA Today Coaches polls of September 24, and were not in the preseason (the Buffs received one point in the coaches' ballot); CU was also not in the final 2005 rankings. Last year, the Buffs peaked at No. 21 in the November 5 coaches' ballot (No. 22 in the AP and Harris Interactive), but dropped out after the loss at Iowa State. CU was ranked three times last season, reaching No. 18 in the BCS Standings at one point (Nov. 6). CU returned to the polls after a 25-month hiatus on October 9. Dating back to the 1989 preseason, CU has been ranked in 185 of the last 284 polls (AP: 65%), which includes a tremendous run of 143 consecutive between 1989 and 1997 (the 10th longest streak of all-time). CU has been ranked 292 times in its history, the 21st most all-time. Since 1989, CU has played the fourth most ranked teams in the nation (89), trailing Florida (96), Florida State (92) and Michigan (92).

DEFENSE POSTING SOME GOOD NUMBERS

The Buffaloes are getting the job done defensively for the most part, especially in stopping the run, as many numbers will bear out:

- Colorado currently is 16th in the nation in rush defense (75.3 yards per game), 12th in average allowed per rush (2.26). CU is 19th nationally with 12 sacks in four games (3.0 per); deduct the sacks from rushing (12 for 87), and the true rushing picture for the opponents is still fairly bleak, at 121 rushes for 388 yards, or 3.2 per play and 97.0 per game.
- CU has held 12 of its last 18 opponents under 100 yards rushing, dating back to the 2004 Houston Bowl. Five of those times the opponent has failed to reach 50, including two games this season. Only one player has run for over 100 yards in that span (Clemson's James Davis).
- Inside-the-20 Opponent Rushing: Opponents have 31 rushing attempts in the red zone against the Buffs through three games, for a net 42 yards (1.3 per try—and those are all true rushes). Six have gone for losses, six for no gain and six others for a single yard. In addition, the opponent is 0-of-5 on 3rd-&-Goal from the 1 (four rushes, one pass).
- CU has held its three opponents to under 300 yards overall, last done over the course of the first four games in 2001 (Fresno State, Colorado State, Kansas), 1998 (CSU, Utah State and Baylor) and 1978 (Oregon, Miami, Fla., and Northwestern).

INJURY UPDATE

Colorado suffered a couple of significant injuries against Arizona State game, but nothing expected to be long term; the injury picture as of September 25:

Pos	Player	Injury	Notes	Status/Missouri
TE	Paul Creighton	hip/quad	strength returning, expected back in practice early in week	DAY-TO-DAY
ILB	Jordon Dizon	elbow	suffered hyperextension against Georgia	DAY-TO-DAY
C	Mark Fenton	cracked fibula	injured at Georgia: surgery not necessary, trainers will treat aggressively	OUT INDEFINITELY
DE	Alex Ligon	knee	suffered a slight sprain in practice Sept. 19	DAY-TO-DAY
CB	Vance Washington	knee	some soreness as he completes rehabilitation	DAY-TO-DAY

OUT FOR SEASON:

S Dominique Brooks (knee surgery rehab); OL Erick Faatagi (knee surgery); WR Michael Kachmer (knee surgery); TE Devin Shanahan (knee surgery).

NOTE: Injuries are reported in conjunction with the HIPAA laws. CU releases player name, body part (but no right or left ID's), the general nature and playing status when it comes to reporting injuries. Status will be listed as either OUT, DOUBTFUL, QUESTIONABLE, DAY-TO-DAY or PROBABLE. Injuries will be updated in-game, post-game, the Sunday after the game, and for game notes at the end of the week.

SERIES HISTORY—COLORADO vs. MISSOURI

Missouri leads the all-time series by a 36-31-3 count, but won the last time out in Columbia in 2004 by a 17-9 count. Missouri owns a 22-11-2 lead in games played in Columbia, while Colorado leads it by a 20-14-1 mark in Boulder (where CU has won four in a row and 10 of the last 11). CU owns a 25-15 edge in the series since 1966, as the Tigers built a 21-6-3 advantage in the first 30 meetings. Over the last 21 games (18-3 in favor of CU), the Buffs have outscored the Tigers by 670-372, owning a hefty edge in total offense (9,083-to-7,201, or 433-343 on the average). The 41 points by Colorado last year marked the 12th time in the series one team has scored 40 or more, but the fifth time in the last 10 games; the 17 points by the Tigers in 2004 were the fewest by the winner since a 6-0 Colorado win in 1992, and was only the sixth time over the last 41 games that the winner failed to score at least 20 points. Dan Hawkins is 0-0 against the Tigers; Missouri's Gary Pinkel is 1-4 against the Buffaloes.

SERIES DID YOU KNOW — Colorado beat Missouri, 46-39, in overtime in 1999—the first overtime game in CU history. The Buffs and Tigers also played an extra session in 2002, with the Buffs winning that one, 42-35. Both times, CU went on offense first and scored a touchdown, and then held the Tigers scoreless, forcing a turnover to end the game on both occasions.

SERIES SIGNATURE ANNIVERSARY GAME — 35th. In 1961, Colorado and Missouri entered their annual contest with high stakes, as the winner would have the inside track to the Big Eight title and the Orange Bowl berth; the Buffaloes entered with a 5-0 record and ranked No. 8, the Tigers at 5-0-1 and No. 10. CU took a 7-0 lead with just 32 seconds left in the first half, as Gale Weidner hooked up with Bill Harris on a 21-yard touchdown pass. Those points held up, but not without some nervous moments for the CU faithful. Mizzou pulled to within 7-6 when halfback Mike Hunter took a pitch from quarterback Ron Taylor and found Don Wainwright on a 10-yard scoring toss with 6:14 left in the game. Instead of going for the tie, MU tried the exact same play to the other side without success. After forcing CU to punt, the Tigers drove from their 25 to the CU 27, where Bill Tobin's 44-yard field goal was both a bit short and a bit wide. CU went on to win the Big Eight, though had a bit of hangover from this one as it dropped a 21-12 decision to Utah at home the following week.

BUFFS & TIGERS BY THE NUMBERS

Here's a look at some numbers-related trivia or fun facts with Colorado and Missouri:

- 2 The number of overtime games Colorado and Missouri have played (1999, 2002), the only team CU has faced more than once for an extra session;
- 5 Not for what you think, but for the yards caught for an apparent touchdown by Boyd Dowler in the 1957 game. The officials ruled him down at the ½-INCH line, but photo evidence in the Denver Post showed he scored in what turned out to be a 9-6 Missouri upset over the Buffs.
- 15 The number of yards Missouri was penalized when one its linemen bit John "The Beast" Bayuk in a pile in the 1956 game. The teams tied, 14-14, and CU earned the nod to the Orange Bowl;
- 20 The number of points Missouri led by midway through the third quarter before CU began its biggest comeback of all-time, scoring the last 21 points to win, 28-27, at Columbia in 1978.
- 30 The number of years since the last time (1976) both Colorado and Missouri were ranked coming into their game;
- 70 The miles per hour of wind gusts in the 1995 game in Boulder, which resulted in just 19 possessions in the game combined;
- 83 The number of yards of a Byron White punt in the 1937 game. It is still the CU record, and carried the note "without roll" for years;
- 177 The number of rushing yards by Missouri in 1961, with the Tiger offense line anchored by none other than Bill McCartney;
- 211 The number of rushing yards by Chris Brown in the 2002 game, including 22 and the winning score in overtime;
- 457 The number of yards passing by Koy Detmer in the 1996 game, which set a CU school record;
- 656 The number of total yards racked up by the Colorado offense in the 1991 game, the most by either team in the series.

COLORADO & CONFERENCE OPENERS

Colorado is 6-4 in Big 12 Conference openers, as the Buffaloes will start league play for the fourth straight season on the road. The Buffs' inaugural league game in 1996 was at Texas A&M, where they emerged with a 24-10 victory; the next six Big 12 lid-lifters were all in Boulder. CU snapped a 2-game losing streak in Big 12 openers with a 34-0 win at Oklahoma State last October 1. In 58 conference openers in the Big Seven/Eight/12, the Buffs are 35-22-1 overall, including a 13-12 mark on the road. The Buffs won their last seven Big Eight openers, thus own a 13-4 record over the last 17 seasons in the first league match-up of the year. This is the 13th time the Buffs and Tigers open conference play against each other (CU has won eight); they were paired up once in the Big 7 (A 27-16 Missouri win in 1953), 10 times in the Big 8 (all between 1983 and 1994) and once in Big 12 action, a 17-9 Tiger win in Columbia in 2004.

THE SET-UP

Colorado is 8-4 against Missouri in conference openers, twice having faced the Tigers after going winless in non-conference play, both times in Columbia. In 1984, with the Buffs still reeling from the near-fatal injury to tight end Ed Reinhardt three weeks earlier, Missouri stormed to a 45-0 lead midway through the third quarter and won 52-7; CU broke the schneid the following week against Iowa State. In 1986, the Buffs used touchdown runs from Mark Hatcher and O.C. Oliver to build a 14-6 halftime lead and then held off a furious rally by the Tigers in winning 17-12. CU then upended No. 3 Nebraska the following week in Boulder.

➤ Since 1971, with the advent of 11-game schedules meaning an extra non-conference game in most cases, Colorado is 6-6 in conference openers that follow a loss in the final non-league game of the season. That includes last year's 34-0 win at Oklahoma State that followed a 23-3 loss at Miami. The most significant win might have come in 1986—after Arizona rallied to defeat CU 24-21, the Buffs regrouped to win 17-12 at Missouri—starting a run that led to CU to a 6-1 finish in the old Big Eight.

MISSOURI TIGER NOTES

Missouri is 4-0 and busted into the national rankings at No. 25 this week (No. 24 in the Harris poll, unranked by the coaches); the Tigers are 4-0 for just the second time since opening 5-0 in 1981, the last time a Mizzou team opened a season with five straight wins. This is just the fifth time Missouri has been 4-0 since its last conference title year (1969), doing so in '69, '73, '81, 2003 and this season. The Tigers have outscored their opponents by 139-37 on the season, with only a road win at New Mexico (27-17) decided by fewer than 25 points.

Missouri head coach Gary Pinkel is in his sixth with the Tigers, owning a 33-30 record; he is in his 16th overall with a 106-67-3 mark.

➔ The Tigers are ranked in the top 20 in 11 major statistics categories, most notably being No. 1 nationally in total defense, allowing just 175.3 yards per game; only New Mexico has cracked the 200-yard barrier against Mizzou, and barely at that (201 yards). Mizzou is eighth in total offense (471.0).

➔ Missouri is ranked for the first time since the front end of the 2004 season, when it opened at No. 18, dropped to No. 19 after defeating Arkansas State in the opener, and then dropped out after losing at Troy.

➔ Mizzou QB Chase Daniel, a sophomore, is second in the conference and ninth in the nation in total offense (287.8 yards per game).

THE LAST TIME... COLORADO 41, MISSOURI 12

NOVEMBER 5, 2005 (In Boulder)

BOULDER — V-back Lawrence Vickers proved the “V” in his position tag indeed stood for versatile, as he ran for a career-high 85 yards and four touchdowns in leading No. 25 Colorado to a 41-12 win over Missouri to give the Buffaloes a two-game lead with as many to play in the Big 12 North Division.

Vickers, who usually plays fullback, moved to tailback due to an ankle injury to starter Hugh Charles and enjoyed one of the finest games of his career, scoring three of his touchdowns in the first half when the Buffs built a 24-6 intermission lead.

Joel Klatt threw for 253 yards and a touchdown as he completed his first 12 passes of the game to get the Colorado offense rolling. CU's first two scoring drives covered 94 and 82 yards, the former the longest of the year by the Buffs. Vickers capped that one with a 1-yard run to put CU ahead 7-0 midway through the first quarter. Missouri put up plenty of fight, countering with an 80-yard drive of its own in 10 plays, with Brad Smith firing an 18-yard touchdown pass to William Franklin. Adam Crossett's PAT kick sailed wide left, however, in what would turn out to be the last chance the Tigers would have to tie the score on the day.

Vickers broke three tackles in rambling in from 20 yards out to start a 17-point scoring spree 6:32 before halftime. After the score that put CU ahead 14-6, the Buffs elected to onside kick, but Missouri wasn't surprised and recovered. Two plays later, Tony Temple fumbled with Buff safety J.J. Billingsley scooping up the ball and racing to Missouri 26. Stephone Robinson picked up 24 yards on a reverse to the 2, where Vickers took it in. Mason Crosby added a 56-yard field goal, one that would have been good from 75, to end the spree to build the 18-point halftime lead.

Missouri's last breath came early in the second half, when Jamar Smith recovered a Klatt fumble and returned it 12 yards for a touchdown. The play was reviewed and upheld, though Klatt said afterwards he felt he his arm was moving forward when hit. Regardless, CU stuffed the two-point try and the responded with a 14-play, 80-yard drive to stamp out the Tiger comeback. Klatt hit Quinn Sypniewski with a 6-yard touchdown pass to make the score 31-12; the drive was aided by a roughing the kicker penalty on a punt and a roughing the passer call.

Vickers added a 7-yard run on the second play of the fourth quarter to extend the lead to 38-12, and Crosby closed the scoring with a 43-yard field goal with just over eight minutes to play.

Smith, who completed his first eight passes, was held in check by the Colorado defense, proving to be the key to shutting down an offensive attack that two weeks earlier went roughshod over Nebraska. In that game, Smith had 480 yards total offense, over 200 both rushing and passing. CU limited him to a season-low 16 rushing yards on 13 tries, and after he opened 8-of-8 for 82 yards in the first quarter, held him to 11-of-21 for 78 yards the rest of the game.

CU outgained Missouri 396-276, and even though both teams ran 74 plays, the Buffs had over nine more minutes of possession time. The Buff defense stifled the Tiger running game, holding MU to just 59 yards on 30 attempts.

IN COLORADO BUFFALO HISTORY: SEPTEMBER 30

Colorado is 7-5 all-time on September 30, as three significant games have been played on the date in program history (see below). Some highlighted Sept. 30 games: 1893—In the first and only September game in the first nine years of program history, CU drops a 14-0 decision at the Denver Athletic Club; 1950—CU beats Kansas State 34-6 in Boulder, limiting the Wildcats to 1-of-12 passing, but for 55 of its 176 total yards. 1961—CU whitewashes Oklahoma State 24-0 in the season and conference opener, its first building block to its first Big Eight title. 1972—The 3-0 and No. 3-ranked Buffaloes stub their collective toes in a 31-6 loss at Oklahoma State, dashing the national championship dreams for the season (though CU did climb back as high as No. 7). 1978—CU earns a still-school record 39 first downs in running all over Northwestern 55-7; the Buffs rush 79 times for 483 yards and eight touchdowns in the win. 1989—A week after quarterback Sal Aunese passed away due to complications from stomach cancer, the Buffs roll into Washington and blowout the No. 21 Huskies, 45-28. The Buffs used the win to rise to No. 3 in the nation, leading 38-6 entering the fourth quarter as CU gained 420 yards rushing as Eric Bienemy and J.J. Flannigan combined for 167 of those and three scores. 1995—Backup QB John Hessler made his first career start, doing so against the arrogance of Oklahoma coach Howard Schnellenberger, who implied he'd rather CU be healthy so there “wouldn't be a damn asterisk when we beat their ---.” After spotting OU a 10-0 lead, the Hessler and the Buffs dismantled the 10th-ranked Sooners, as the sophomore signal caller threw a school record five touchdowns in CU's 38-17 rout.

SEPTEMBER 30 COLORADO MVP: Hessler. He carved up the Oklahoma secondary by completing 24-of-34 passes for 348 yards with a school record five touchdowns (and no interceptions) in CU's 38-17 win in Norman in 1995. WR Rae Carruth caught five of those balls for 112 yards and two scores.

CAREER CHART WATCH

Here's where several Buffs rank on some of CU's all-time statistical chart four games into the 2006 season (Note: Colorado does not count bowl stats into career totals to protect past history):

- ⇒ FS J.J. BILLINGSLEY is 15th in total tackles (284, the fourth most by a defensive back), and is 10th in solo tackles (198).
- ⇒ TB HUGH CHARLES is 40th in rushing yards (1,117) and 99th in receiving yards (300).
- ⇒ PK MASON CROSBY is first in field goals made (52), second in PAT kicks made (93), first in field goal attempts (69), first in PAT attempts (101), and is second in scoring (first in kick scoring—249 points).
- ⇒ ILB JORDON DIZON is tied for 71st in total tackles (182), and is tied for 51st in solo tackles (115).
- ⇒ KR STEPHONE ROBINSON is 10th in punt return yards (553), fifth in punt returns (67), ninth in kickoff return yards (758) and sixth in KO returns (42).
- ⇒ CB LORENZO SIMS is tied for 27th in interceptions (6) and is sixth in pass deflections (31).
- ⇒ WR DUSTY SPRAGUE is tied for 19th in receptions (69) and is 26th in receiving yards (781).
- ⇒ ILB THADDAEUS WASHINGTON is tied for 17th in total tackles (274), and is 18th in solo tackles (164).
- ⇒ DE ABRAHAM WRIGHT is 12th in quarterback sacks (14½).
- ⇒ WR PATRICK WILLIAMS is tied for 55th in receptions (37) and is 89th in receiving yards (349).

DUELING

Colorado has scored in 214 straight games dating back to 1988; down the road, the NFL Denver Broncos have scored in 216 consecutive contests, dating to 1992. Their fiercest rivals inflicted the last shutouts of each: Nebraska and the Raiders (then in L.A.). Combined, the pair has scored in 430 straight games.

BUFFS SPORT NATION'S NO. 15 DEFENSE IN STOPPING THE RUN

Colorado's defense against the run in 2005 was the best in school history. The Buffs allowed 95.3 yards per game, ninth nationally in the regular season (CU finished 11th including the bowl game). The school record for a season had been 114.2, set in 1990 and matched in 1994. Only two other years have the Buffs allowed fewer than 125, when the opponent had 115.5 in both 1965 and 1989. That same defense against the run has carried into the 2006 season, as the Buffs have allowed just 2.26 yards per rush (2.71 last year). CU is allowing between 5 and 31 yards per quarter this year after allowing between 18 and 29 a year ago. It all adds up to consistency. Prior to 2005, the Buffs had last finished in the top 20 in rushing defense in 1994, when they were 15th, also the highest a Colorado defense had ever finished against the run until last season.

- ➔ CU has not allowed an opponent an individual 100-yard rushing game; the last player to do it was Clemson's James Davis in the Champs Sports Bowl, with Oklahoma's Adrian Peterson the next to last in the 2004 Big 12 title game. The 2005 opponent high is 82 by Arizona State's Keegan Herring, the only other instance where an opponent back has put more than 66 on the CU defense (CSU's Kyle Bell's total in the '05 season opener). Since 1950, there has only been three occasions where CU did not allow a 100-yard rusher over an entire season: in 1957, 1965 and 1967.
- ➔ Opponent Longs. CU has allowed just one rushing play over 20 yards this year—a 25-yard run by ASU's Herring—and just 12 over 10 yards. Through four games, 56 percent of opponent rushes (75 of 133) have gone for two yards or less. Dissecting the opponents 133 rushes on the year, you find these play counts: 20-plus: 1. 10-plus: 12. 5-Plus: 35. 2-or-less: 75. Zero: 15. Minus: 31 (includes 13 sacks per NCAA calculation). In 2005, just under 52 percent (218 of 422) of rushes against CU gained two or fewer yards.

ROAD-SWEET-ROAD: BUFFS NINTH BEST IN ENEMY STADIUMS SINCE '88

The Buffaloes have enjoyed a lot of success on the road over the last 18 seasons. CU has been victorious 57 of the last 89 times in enemy stadiums and is 57-31-1 overall away from home (a 64.6 winning percentage). That stands ninth nationally (tied for sixth in raw wins) and second among Big 12 Conference teams in this span. Going back 21 seasons (to 1985), CU is 65-36-1, a 64.9 winning clip. During this time frame, CU won a school record 10 straight road games between 1994 and 1996. The Buffaloes own a 46-22-1 mark in their last 68 road conference games (Big 8 & Big 12—five losses at Nebraska, two at Kansas, Kansas State, Missouri, Oklahoma, Texas and Texas Tech; and one each at Baylor, Iowa State, Oklahoma State and Texas A&M; the tie was at K-State in 1993). CU is 21-19 on the Big 12 road since 1996 (2-2 in 2005). The chart to the right does not include neutral site games, despite some being anything but (i.e., Colorado vs. Texas at Irving for the '01 Big 12 title.)

16TH BEST IN THE NATION SINCE 1989

Colorado has the nation's 16th best record over the last 17-plus seasons, or since the start of 1989, CU has posted a 140-68-4 record. From opening 1-0 in '89, through the 10th game of the 2005 season, the Buffs owned one of the top 10 overall records in the nation (247 consecutive weeks); that was snapped with a loss to Nebraska late last year. The best Division I-A records from the start of 1989 through games of September 23:

THE BUFFALOES IN THE BIG 12

The Big 12 Conference is now in its 11th season, and the Buffaloes are tied with Oklahoma and Texas in the number of division titles won with four. Just half of the schools in the conference have won a division title. A closer look:

- ➔ Big 12 Division Titles (including 2005): Colorado 4, Oklahoma 4, Texas 4, Kansas State 3, Nebraska 3, Texas A&M 2.
- ➔ Big 12 Championship Game Records: Oklahoma 3-1, Nebraska 2-1, Texas 2-2, Colorado 1-3, Texas A&M 1-1, Kansas State 1-2.

CU VS. THE BIG 12 NORTH: Colorado owns the best record in intra-division competition going back to the start of the 2001 season against Big 12 North Division rivals, as the Buffaloes are 20-5 in this time frame. Other records in the same span: Kansas State 16-9, Nebraska 14-11, Iowa State 10-15, Missouri 8-17 and Kansas 7-18. The Buffs are 11-2 at home in this stretch, the only losses to Nebraska (2003 & 2005).

GOLORADO BY THE NUMBERS IN 2006

- 0 The conversion percentage for the opponent on 3rd-&-Goal from the Colorado 1 in 2006 (0-of-5).
- 1 The number of players who have rushed for 100-plus yards against CU in the last 18 games—Clemson's James Davis (150) in the Champs Sports Bowl.
- 1 The number of scrimmage plays over 40 yards in CU games this season by the Buffs and the opponent (a 42-yard pass from James Cox to Patrick Williams against Montana State—coming on the first offensive play of the year).
- 13 The number of points CU has scored on its first possession of the four games to date in 2006 (23 on the other 41).
- 14 The number of scrimmage plays over 40 yards in CU games in 2005 (7 by Colorado, 7 by the opponent).
- 16 The number of records Mason Crosby has set in his career, many of them falling into place this season.
- 17 The number of second down plays the opponent has had with just 1 to 4 yards needed for a first down (out of 84).
- 1-18 The raw third down conversion number for opponents on 3rd-and-10 or longer in 2006 (CU is 3-of-18 in similar circumstances).
- 20-5 Colorado owns the best intra-division mark over the last five seasons against fellow Big 12 North teams at 20-5.
- 34.8 Opponents are starting 34.8 percent of their drives (16 of 46) either inside or at the 20-yard line for the season; that number was 49.7 in 2005.
- 63 The length of a Mason Crosby field goal attempt with 1:11 left against Montana State, the fourth attempt of 60 yards or longer in school history (he has the only make from that distance, 60 yards against Iowa State in 2004).
- 214 Colorado scored in its 214th consecutive game, adding to the sixth longest active streak in the nation.
- 456 The combined number of career tackles from CU starting linebackers Thaddaeus Washington (274) and Jordon Dizon (182); the most two players simultaneously have had while playing on the same team were 599 by Ted Johnson (409) and Matt Russell (190) at the end of the '94 season.
- 1600 The mileage in each direction Ralphie IV traveled to appear at the Georgia game, her first regular season appearance outside of Colorado since 1989.
- 92746 The third largest crowd CU has ever played before, coming at Georgia's Sanford Stadium.

BIG 12 BOWL TIE-INS ALTERED BEGINNING IN 2006

The Big 12 Conference signed new agreements with the Gator, Sun and Insight bowls, beginning this fall, and ended previous arrangements with the Champs Sports and Fort Worth bowls. The new agreements run through 2009, and the league also re-upped for that same period of time with the bowls it retained relationships with: Fiesta, Cotton, Holiday, Alamo, Independence and Houston. The new Big 12 bowl lineup:

BCS/Tostitos Fiesta (vs. BCS)

MasterCard Alamo (vs. Big 10)

Insight (vs. Big 10)

AT&T Cotton (vs. SEC)

*Toyota Gator (vs. ACC)

Independence (vs. SEC)

Pacific Life Holiday (vs. Pacific 10)

*Vitalis Sun (vs. Pacific 10)

Ev1.net Houston (vs. Big East)

*—For the Gator and Sun bowls, the Big 12 is guaranteed a spot each season in one of the bowls, with no more than two appearances in either game over the four years of the contract.

INSTANT REPLAY SUMMARY

Instant replay is now the norm in college football. In the first year of the implementation in 2005, Colorado had just 12 plays reviewed (in six total games), with just two being overturned. Here's the roll call of instant replay situations (where play was stopped for further review) for Colorado games in 2006 (*—denotes coach's challenge):

Date	Opponent	Team	Play Reviewed	Result	Length	Notes
Sept. 2	Montana State	MSU	Rolovich 9 pass to Jefferson, Wright 23 fumble return	Overturned	2:12	Ruled an incomplete pass, no possession
Sept. 2	Montana State	*MSU	Carpenter pass to Groves, stopped short of TD	Upheld	0:41	Player broke plane of EZ, ball did not
Sept. 9	Colorado State	*CSU	Jackson fumble and CU recovery	Upheld	2:43	Involved fumble pile, replay couldn't change
Sept. 16	Arizona State	ASU	ASU's Carpenter fumbles out of bounds inside the CU 1	Overturned	1:47	fumble hit pylon, ruled TB/possession to CU
Sept. 16	Arizona State	CU	Jackson fumble into end zone, ASU recovery and return	Upheld	2:15	Seeing if he had broken the plane first
Sept. 23	Georgia	CU	CU possession after punt (ruled did not touch CU player)	Upheld	1:20	Two CU players avoided touching ball

40 WINS OVER RANKED TEAMS SEVENTH BEST SINCE '89

CU's 40 wins over Associated Press ranked teams since the start of the 1989 season is tied for the seventh most in the nation in this time frame. Florida State has the most with 65, followed by Michigan (56), Florida (53), Miami, Fla. (49), Ohio State (48), Tennessee (47), Colorado (40) and Notre Dame (40). Penn State (38) and Alabama and Nebraska (34 each) round out the top 10. As for the Big 12, after CU and NU, the next schools on this list are Texas (32), Oklahoma (28), Texas A&M (18) and Texas Tech (17). All-time, Colorado's 63 wins over ranked teams are the 23rd most in history. (AP polls used for these figures because the coaches' poll omits teams on probation, but AP still ranks those teams.)

- Colorado has dropped 11 straight games against ranked opponents, and gets another chance this week to end the streak with No. 25 Missouri on the docket. CU's last win against a ranked team came in 2003, when the Buffs toppled No. 22 Missouri, 21-16. CU has lost five straight in enemy stadiums to the ranked, with the last win at UCLA 31-17 in 2002.

SCHEDULE STRENGTH

Through games of September 23, Colorado is playing the nation's 24th toughest schedule nationally (as calculated on cumulative opposition records for the season). Indiana is atop the pack, as its opponents are combined 25-9 for a 73.5 winning percentage; Florida (23-9, 71.9), Connecticut (25-10, 71.4), Minnesota (24-10, 70.6) and Illinois (23-10, 69.7) round out the top five. Colorado's opponents are 19-12, placing CU 24th on the list and as the third Big 12 school; Baylor (15th) and Iowa State (18th) are ahead of the Buffaloes, while Nebraska and Texas A&M are also 24th, with Oklahoma 27th, Oklahoma State and Missouri 28th, Texas Tech 36th, Texas 40th, Kansas 57th and Kansas State 63rd.

HEAD COACH DAN HAWKINS

Dan Hawkins is in his first season as head coach of the Colorado program, his sixth year as a Division I-A head coach, and his 11th season as a collegiate head coach. He owns a 0-4 record at Colorado, along with a 53-15 record in the Division I-A ranks (all at Boise State) and an overall career mark of 92-27-1 including five years at NAIA Willamette (Ore.) College. In his final year at Willamette (1997), his team posted a 13-1 record, falling in the NAIA Championship game, before moving on to Boise State where he was the assistant head coach along with coaching the tight ends and special teams while coordinating recruiting. When Dirk Koetter left BSU for Arizona State after the 2000 season, Hawkins was promoted to head coach. He took the Broncos to four bowl games in five years, with his 2004 team compiling an 11-0 regular season mark and ascending to No. 10 in the national polls; in the most anticipated non-BCS bowl game to date, Boise dropped a thriller to No. 7 Louisville (44-40). In the modern history of Division I-A football, only three coaches won more games in their first five seasons than Hawkins (53: bested by Bob Pruett, Marshall; Bob Stoops, Oklahoma; and Pete Carroll, USC). Hawk's Handiwork:

- ◆ Hawkins has been a head coach for 120 games (92-27-1), with that record and 77.1 winning percentage second in the nation for active coaches with 100 or more games coached for their career.
- ◆ In 11 seasons as a head coach, Hawkins' teams have never been shutout, and had never dropped more than two games in a row in the same season (which happened just three times) until this year and have won at least eight games seven times (10-plus four times).
- ◆ A sample of what Hawkins tells his players: "You're in America, you're going to college, you live in Colorado. You have it better than 90 percent of the people in the world."
- ◆ Hawkins has used the term "conflama" when referring to some people's desire for conflict and drama (i.e., the reason someone like Jerry Springer and that lot is even on the air). He references the term when people on the outside of a program choose to look at the negative without choosing to understand why something may very well be the way it is.
- ◆ Hawk on depth charts: "To be honest, we really don't pay too much attention to depth charts, we run a lot of personnel in and out of there at several positions. For example, I view the defensive line like hockey; they're playing in shifts as we want them fresh." As a result, especially on offense at receiver, tight end and in the backfield, CU utilizes different "groupings" as opposed to following a depth chart.
- ◆ As with many coaches, at the end of practice, the team will run for turnovers, mistakes, missed field goals, etc. One day after PK Mason Crosby missed a kick within his range, Hawk felt a little bad as he wondered to himself, "How many coaches are making their kids run for a missed 64-yard field goal?"
- ◆ Hawkins is one of the 63 Division I-A coaches voting in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches poll in 2006 (the sixth straight year he is a voter and the 20th straight year CU's head coach has participated).

HAWKINS AMONG THE BEST

Dan Hawkins has one of top records among all active Division I-A coaches; in fact, he has the sixth best mark and is listed among some of the top names in the profession. A closer look through games of September 23:

GOACHES ON GAME DAY

The coaching staff is split between the sidelines and the press box. Upstairs are offensive coordinator Mark Helfrich, running backs coach Darian Hagan, secondary coach Greg Brown, graduate assistants Andy Avalos and Joe Bever and technical assistants Mike Babcock and Donnell Leomiti. Head coach Dan Hawkins wears a headset on the sideline, along with defensive coordinator Ron Collins, linebackers coach Brian Cabral, offensive line coach Chris Strausser, passing game coordinator/receivers coach Eric Kiesau, defensive line coach Romeo Bandison and special teams/tight ends coach Kent Riddle. Plays are generally shuttled in from substituting players.

EXPERIENCE

Colorado's 2006 coaching staff is youthful, yet experienced. Entering 2006, the 10 full-time coaches who comprise the Colorado coaching staff had coached a collective 76 seasons in Division I-A and have combined to coach in 992 games through four games of the 2006 season (with a record of 613-355-4, .633). The aggregate age of the 10 is 399 years, thus making the average age 39.9, one of the younger staffs in the nation. Linebacker coach Brian Cabral is the elder statesman at 50, followed by secondary coach Greg Brown (48); five of the coaches are over 40, including head coach Dan Hawkins (45), with five under, with offensive coordinator Mark Helfrich the youngest (32). Helfrich is the fifth-youngest offensive coordinator in the Division I-A ranks; the only four younger are Major Applewhite, Rice (28), Brian Harsin, Boise State (30), Lane Kiffin, USC (31) and Ramon Flanigan, North Texas (31). OLD-TIMER

Assistant head coach and linebacker coach Brian Cabral has taken his place among legendary assistant coaches who have spent time at Colorado. In his 17th season, he is now third all-time in years coached as a full-time member of the staff, as he trails two legendary Franks: Potts and Prentup, both who assisted for 18 years each. A closer look:

ASSISTANT COACH LONGEVITY: 1. Frank Potts 18 (1927-39, 1941-43, 1946-47) and Frank Prentup 18 (1941-58); 3. Brian Cabral 17 (1990-current); 4. Dan Stavelly 15 (1958, 1963-76); 5. Chet Franklin 12 (1963-74), Mike Hankwitz 12 (1985-94, 2004-05) and Alva Noggle 12 (1920-31); 7. Marshall Wells 11 (1948-58); 9. Ray Jenkins 10 (1948-57), and Jon Embree 10 (1993-2002).

THE SIMULATOR

Coors Field brought "The Humidor" into vogue; could CU be doing the same with "The Simulator?" A computer program from Gridiron Technologies that simulates every play, and aspect for that matter, of the offense tests quarterbacks on their assignments and reads. Coaches monitor the progress through printouts that summarize how the players did. While every offensive player has access to the simulator, offensive coordinator Mark Helfrich finds it particularly valuable for the quarterbacks. Helfrich brought the idea with him from Arizona State, where the program first developed and tested by an ASU alum. Helfrich calls the simulator a hybrid between the standard playbook and videotape.

CAPITAL RETURNS

CU's success often correlates directly with if it owns a hefty margin in return yards, as was the case in the 2001, 2002 and 2004 seasons—when the Buffs won the Big 12 North. The Buffs had advantages of 854-417 (2001), 803-607 (2002) and 574-499 (2004) in return yards, which includes all return yardage other than those on kickoffs. And the Buffs have 37 return touchdowns over the last seven seasons (33 regular season, four bowl game), tied for the seventh most in the nation for this span. MASON CROSBY 2005 CONSENSUS FIRST TEAM ALL-AMERICAN, RUNNER-UP FOR LOU GROZA AWARD

PK Mason Crosby was the consensus All-American placekicker 2005, as the Associated Press, FWAA, The Sporting News and Walter Camp afforded him the honor. He finished as the runner-up for the Lou Groza Award, losing out to Oregon State's Alexis Serna by just six points (out of 175-plus ballots). He made his debut as a freshman in 2003, but really burst on the scene in 2004 with an assault on the school's field goal records, the crown jewel being a school and Folsom Field record 60-yard kick against Iowa State. He then opened his junior season in grand style on his 21st birthday (Sept. 3), scoring 11 points (3-3 FG, 2-2 PAT) in the 31-28 win over Colorado State. Those included a 48-yard field goal to tie the score at 21-21 with 2:32 left, and a game-winning 47-yard boot with 0:04 on the clock. A first-team all-Big12 performer in both 2004 and 2005, he is CU's first-ever first-team All-American at placekicker as he has continued to rewrite the CU record book.

His first entry in the books in 2005 was when he set the record for consecutive field goals made, and tied the school mark for the longest field goal on the road with a 58-yard field goal at Miami, the longest kick without a tee at sea level in NCAA history. He's adding freely to the book in 2006. Proceed if you want to be impressed:

- ➔ He set four school records in 2004, to go with his record for points by a freshman (52) he established in 2003. He added four more in 2005, and has positioned himself nicely for many career marks, as he added three alone in the season opener against Montana State. He now owns or shares 16 total.
- ➔ He established the school consecutive field goal made streak with 10, dating back to the final three games of 2004 before a 55-yard try went wide left on him in the New Mexico State game. The old mark had been nine.
- ➔ The 60-yarder against Iowa State in 2004 was the longest in the NCAA last year as well as the longest in Division I-A since 1999. It was just the 10th field goal of 60 yards or more in the NCAA since 1988, when tees were no longer allowed; no kicker has made two.
- ➔ His 58-yard field goal at Miami not only preserved CU's scoring streak at 200 games, it is the longest field goal in NCAA history at sea level without the use of a kicking tee (see chart on next page). That kick is also tied for the longest in the NCAA in 2005.
- ➔ He had five field goals of 50 yards or longer as a sophomore in 2004, which was not only a CU single season record (several had two), it set a career mark as the old best had been three, by both Dave DeLine and Jim Harper. Including the Houston Bowl, when he had a 54-yarder, he had six 50-plus for the year which led the nation, topping Ohio State's Mike Nugent, the Groza Award winner (the NCAA record is eight).
- ➔ He has five 50-plus yard kicks again in 2005, again tops in the nation, with four coming on the road (58 at Miami; 52 and 50 at Kansas State; 57 at Iowa State).
- ➔ He was 19-of-23 in 2004 in FGs, with the 19 makes covering 725 yards, an average of 38.2 yards per kick (his four misses: 46.3).
- ➔ He was 21-of-28 in 2005 in FGs, with the 21 makes covering 865 yards, an average of 41.2 yards per kick (his seven misses: 44.1).
- ➔ He is 5-of-9 in 2006 in FGs, with the five makes covering 155 yards, an average of 31.0 yards per kick (his four misses: 51.5).
- ➔ He is 52-of-69 in field goals in his career (57-of-76 including bowls), 28-of-31 inside 40 yards (two of which were blocked) and a most respectable 24-of-38 from 41 yards or longer in the regular season. He is first at Colorado in career field goals made (52) and in kick scoring (249 points).
- ➔ He has made four field goals in a game three times (Iowa State, Nebraska and UTEP in the Houston Bowl, all in 2004).
- ➔ He made four of the 10 longest field goals in the NCAA in 2004 (60, 55, 54, 54), including the only one longer than 50 yards in bowls; his 55-yard kick against CSU in the opener was CU's first from 50-plus yards in 11 seasons. He had three of the six longest in the NCAA in 2005.
- ➔ The average field position for the opponent after his kickoffs the 22, as 119 of his 169 career kicks have gone for touchbacks; 12 of the 48 returned against him have not been brought back beyond the 20; only 10 have gone beyond the 30 and just one beyond the 40 (on his 156th career kickoff).
- ➔ Perhaps his best kick ever was also in the 2004 Iowa State game--an 87-yard kickoff for a touchback after he had to boot it from the 20-yard line following a penalty. "I didn't even expect that. I was just trying to get it up in the air to give the coverage team time to get down there," Crosby said.
- ➔ He has been selected the Big 12 Conference's Special Teams Player-of-the-Week seven times in his career (CSU, Miami, Kansas State and Missouri this year; for Iowa State and Nebraska in 2004; and for KU in 2003). That puts Crosby in select company: the seven is tied for the most in a career with two other players in Big 12 history: RB Ricky Williams (Texas, 1996-98) and QB Eric Crouch (NU, 1998-2001). Williams was recognized five times in 1998 (Heisman season); Crosby ('05) and Texas Tech QB Kliff Kingsbury ('02) are the only others to honored at least four times in a season.
- ➔ The Lou Groza Award Committee has named him one of its three "Stars of the Week" on four occasions (Iowa State in '04; CSU, Miami and K-State in '05).
- ➔ AYE, CAPTAIN. Mason is one of three CU captains, and one of just a handful of placekickers serving as yearlong captains in the NCAA (Syracuse's Brendan Carney and UTEP's Reagan Schneider are the others).
- ➔ ACTIVE NCAA KICKING RANKINGS (includes his Houston and Champs Sports bowl stats, which CU does not include): Field Goals Made (t-2nd/57); FG Attempts (1st/76); FG Made/Game (t-8th/1.4); FG Accuracy (15th/75.0); Scoring (6th/268 points).
- ➔ Late Game Heroics. Crosby has made a name for himself in the clutch, as he is 12-of-15 in the fourth quarter, including 10-of-11 in the final 8½ minutes with eight kicks of 41 yards or longer and seven of them with the score of the game within six points; his only miss was a 63-yard try against Montana State as CU tried to rally in the waning minutes; it fell just short. 2006	@Iowa State	13-23	11:25 4Q	57 FG	16-23	pulled CU back to within one score, but CU's tying drive ended in interception return TD
	MONTANA STATE	10-19	1:11 4Q	63 FGA	just short on the try as CU attempted to rally; the 63 yard FGA was the longest ever at CU
	ARIZONA STATE	3-21	10:27 4Q	57 FGA	kick was wide left, affected by winds gusting to 20 mph

TAKE THIS ALTITUDE ARGUMENT AND SHOVE IT

To paraphrase the classic Johnny Paycheck song, that is... Crosby's 58-yard field goal at Miami in 2005 (Sept. 24), elevation seven feet, is the longest field goal in NCAA history at sea level without the use of a kicking tee (all kicks after 1988 are without one). It tied for the third longest, tee or not, at altitude in college and for the fifth longest when including the National Football League. Seeing how he accomplished something most kickers who kick at lower altitudes historically never do, this should end once and for all the altitude arguments used against CU kickers and punters when it comes to All-America and trophy consideration. (In fact, four of his five 50-plus yard kicks in 2005 came on the road, including a 57-yard boot in horrific wind at Iowa State.) A closer look:

➤ ONE OF HANDFUL: Crosby is really a part-time punter at best, but should he get more kicks, he would join a very select group nationally who handle all major kicking chores (placekick, punt, kickoff). Only eight do all three: John Deraney, N.C. State; Nick Folk, Arizona; Chris Gould, Virginia; Greg Johnson, Texas; Matt Lasher, Ohio; Ryan Succop, South Carolina; Sam Swank, Wake Forest; Andrew Wellock, Eastern Michigan. (Research provided by Virginia SID office)

QUOTE: "He is a great kicker. When he came out of high school, you could see he was a really good kicker. He has got that special work ethic; you never have to tell him to go work because he is always driven to get better on his own. When you have that work ethic, talent and desire like he does, then you will be able to succeed. He has got a leg. We'll see him in the NFL; he'll be good enough." — Baltimore Ravens Pro Bowl placekicker Matt Stover, the third-most accurate kicker in NFL history, who coached Mason in high school during summers.

COACHES CORNER / WITH DAN HAWKINS

Comments from Colorado head coach Dan Hawkins following the 14-13 loss at Georgia:

General: "We are never down. We are fighters and not quitters. We did not knock them out when we had the chance. We keep playing better. We did a lot of naked packages to slow down the rush. I was not surprised at how easily we moved the ball in the first half. We have a good football team. This loss tears your guts out. You can knock us down, but you can't knock us out. We did not come here to just show up, we came here to play. We came here to win."

On Losing Mark Fenton Against Georgia: "He's obviously a very good player, but Bryce (MacMartin) did a very nice job of filling in. You can't dwell on it, injuries are an element to this game you have to deal with."

On If The Start of Conference Play Is A "New" Season: "To some degree, as it gives you an opportunity to start fresh in the Big 12 Conference. But I don't want us to think to just put everything this behind us. There are too many good lessons to learn from the first four games that I don't want them to forget."

First Impressions On Missouri: "They are a very aggressive team, very athletic. They run around, pressure you, blitz you. They're a solid 4-0 and just busted into the rankings, and you know they want to keep moving up. It's important that our guys realize that every week there is a different mountain to climb. Sure, Georgia was the number nine team, but don't think it's going to get any easier and that Georgia was the top of the hill. Each week there are new challenges and we have to do what we need to get to the top of the mountain."

On Timing Of Loss: "I don't really want this to get behind them. It's needs to be squarely in front of them. They need to continue to push, to take advantage of the kind of opportunities to make things happen."

On Play of Bernard Jackson: "He did some nice things, made some plays. He is developing better awareness, and starting to emerge. He's gaining confidence and is improving every day."

PLAYER QUOTES

Some select player comments after the Buffs' 14-13 loss at Georgia:

DT GEORGE HYPOLITE

GENERAL—"There's a lot as a team we can take from this game. As a defense, we showed that we can stop anyone in the country if we do our job and stick with the game plan. It got away from us at the end, so we need to learn from what happened and go from there. They hurt us with the screen pass and it helped set up other stuff at the end, so we will have to work on that because other teams will likely try the same until we prove we can stop it."

ON GEORGIA'S GAME WINNING DRIVE—"We had one goal in mind on the last drive, to keep them out of the end zone and get the ball back. We thought Georgia might go back to running some screen passes, but we couldn't finish."

ON LOSING ANOTHER TOUGH CONTEST—"Today's game showed we're better than our 0-4 record. We pretty much dominated our first four games and we've ended up on the losing side of all of them. Georgia made enough plays at the right time to get the win."

TB HUGH CHARLES

GENERAL—"I thought we fought hard, and it came down to the end, but we didn't produce. We made mistakes, and I take the blame for the last fumble. That last fumble changed the game. I thought we played great, but we didn't finish. Georgia's defense was very fast and they did a good job."

ON MOVING FORWARD—"We've got to move on to our Big 12 schedule. We still have a lot of goals to accomplish, and we can take a lot from this game."

SEASON NOTE PROGRESSION

A running list of major notes and/or accomplishments from the postgame notes of all games in 2006:

Montana State

📢 Quickly. The 19-10 loss snapped a 3-game winning streak in season openers for the Buffaloes... Colorado scored in its 211th consecutive game this afternoon, adding to the 13th longest streak of all-time (sixth longest active streak)... Tickets distributed for the game were 45,513, though CU officials estimated around 2,500-3,000 no shows, likely due to the weather... CU has opened 0-2 only two times in its history (117 seasons), last doing so in 2000 and 1986... the 216 yards of total offense were the fewest in a season opener since 1979, when the Buffs had 211 in Chuck Fairbanks' first game at Colorado... the 288 allowed by CU was the fewest since 2001 (Fresno State had 287), the 11th time the last 20 the opponent has failed to reach 300.

📢 Inaugural Jinx. For whatever reason, CU has now dropped the first game in a new coaches' tenure for the 12th time in the last 13 debuts (dating back to 1935). Small consolation is that two of the most revered coaches in CU history, Eddie Crowder and Bill McCartney, did the same (ironically with rain the day before and of the game, the only two instances of bad weather for a CU coaching debut prior to today).

📢 First Play of the Year. The 42-yard pass from James Cox to Patrick Williams was the longest first offensive play of the season in Colorado history. The old best was a 31-yard pass from Kordell Stewart to Erik Mitchell against Colorado State in Boulder in the 1992 opener. The 42 yards almost equaled the total of the 13 season opening plays since (50 yards total); the only other one over 20 yards came in 1984 (a Steve Vogel pass to Loy Alexander for 21 yards against Michigan State). —The play decimated the previous best first offensive play under a new head coach, the last eight of which totaled all of 13 yards, the longest being a 4-yard pass from Koy Detmer to Matt Lepsis at Wisconsin in Rick Neuheisel's first game in 1995; defensively, CU forced the third incomplection in the last four coach openers on that side of the ball.

📢 PK Mason Crosby (1-2 FG: 24, 63s; 1-1 PAT; 4 points). He became CU's all-time leading kick scorer in today's game, as he entered the contest tied with Jeremy Aldrich with 231 points; with 235 points, he is now second all-time in overall scoring, trailing only Eric Bieniemy, who scored 254 points between 1987-90. He tied Aldrich for the most field goals in a CU career with 48; the 63-yard attempt in the fourth quarter was also a school record for the longest field goal attempt in school history, besting two previous 62-yard tries: Fred Lima vs. Oklahoma State at Stillwater (Sept. 30, 1972) and Ken Culbertson vs. Oklahoma in Boulder, Oct. 22, 1988.

SEASON NOTE PROGRESSION, CONTINUEDColorado State

Quickly... CU is 0-2 for only the 17th time in its history (117 seasons), last doing so in 2000 and 1986 before this year... Including the last four games of last year, CU has dropped six straight games, the longest losing streak since CU opened 0-7 in 1980... Mason Crosby's 61-yard field goal, wiped out by a late timeout allowed CSU, would have been a school record (he owns the mark with a 60-yard effort).

Rushing Defense. Colorado's rushing defense has answered the bell in the first two games, as the opponent has just 65 yards on 69 attempts this season; take out sacks, computed as rushing in the NCAA, and the number is still 128 yards on 60 true rushing attempts, or 2.2 per. It is the third straight year that the Buffs have held their first two opponents under the century mark (and to 100 or less combined: 59 in 2004, 100 in 2005 and 65 this year).

Series Stuff. Colorado State snapped a three-game losing streak in the series to make it 57-19-2 in favor of the Buffaloes; the last five games in the series have been decided by a total of 22 points, easily the most contested quintet of games in the 78 year old rivalry and the second closest five-game series run in school history to a 1996-2000 run where five games against Nebraska, all Husker wins, were decided by 15 points.

Frosh Long. The 73-yard punt by redshirt freshman Matt DiLallo to open the second quarter was the longest-ever by a CU freshman (true or redshirt) and tied for the 12th longest in school history. It was the longest kick since Nick Pietsch launched a 76-yard effort at Kansas on Oct. 19, 1996.

Firsts. TE Dan Goettsch, QB Bernard Jackson, FS Ryan Walters made their first career starts, while TB Kevin Moyd and ILB Jeff Smart saw their first action (both coming on special teams). WR Blake Mackey saw his first action since the 2004 Houston Bowl, as he missed all of last year with a knee injury; Jackson scored his first career TD and WR Nick Holz made his first career catch.

Third Down Sacks. There were seven sacks combined on the 25 third down plays (four by CU, three by CSU). In fact, aside from the 32-yard completion from Caleb Haney to Johnny Walker late in the game, the teams gained 29 yards on 24 third down plays.

DE Abraham Wright. He had three quarterback sacks, the first three-sack game by a Buffalo since DE Alex Ligon had three against Washington State in Seattle two years ago the same weekend (Sept. 11, 2004).

Arizona State

Quickly... Arizona State wins the first-ever meeting between the schools; the rematch is set for next Sept. 8 in Tempe... The honorary captain for CU was Jenny Barringer, a sophomore on the cross country and track team who won the NCAA steeplechase title as a freshman last June... Arizona State had five quarterback sacks in the game, four coming on third down plays.

Scoring Streak. Colorado scored in its 213th straight game, adding to the sixth longest active streak in the nation and the 13th longest all-time. Mason Crosby's 29-yard field goal got Colorado on the scoreboard, the 15th time in the streak CU's All-American kicker put the Buffs' first points on the board. The Buffs are one back of 12th on the list, as Arizona scored in 214 straight between 1972 and 1990.

Lack of Scoring. In Colorado's three games this season, there have been a combined 77 points scored (23 by the Buffs, 54 by the opponent). The 23 by CU is its fewest three games into a year since 1964 (21 points), and the Buffs are still looking for their first second half points of the year.

DE Abraham Wright. He had one quarterback sack to up his total to five on the season; he is well on his way to a double digit season in sacks, which if accomplished, would be the first Buff to have 10 or more sacks since Ron Woolfork had 13½ in 1992. He now has 14½ in his career, which is the 12th most in school history.

TB Hugh Charles (20-109, 0 TD). He became the 48th player in school history to rush for 1,000 yards in a career, ending the game with 1,045 yards (44th on the all-time list). It was his fourth career 100-yard game, his first since he rushed for career high 132 yards on 20 carries at Oklahoma State last Oct. 1 (also the first by a Buffalo since that contest).

SS J.J. Billingsley had his first interception of the season (the fifth of his career), his first pick since last year's Kansas game; CB Terrence Wheatley had his first interception of the season and the fifth of his career, his first since he snared one against Oklahoma in the 2004 Big 12 Championship game.

Both ILB Thaddaeus Washington and S Ryan Walters posted career highs in tackles against Arizona State. Washington had 15 (8 solo) in eclipsing his previous best by one, while Walters had 11, topping his old high of seven.

PK Mason Crosby (1-2 FG: 29, 57wl; 0-0 PAT; 3 points). He had his 65th and 66th career field goal attempts for his career, taking over sole possession of that record (he came in tied with Jeremy Aldrich, who also had 64 between 1996-99). He now has 242 career points, trailing only TB Eric Bieniemy, who scored 254 points between 1987-90. He missed just his third field goal try for his career in the fourth quarter, as he is now 12-of-15; the three misses have come from 50, 63 and 57 yards.

Red Zone Rushing Defense. Colorado did a decent job against the run inside its 20, as Arizona State had 10 rushes for 32 yards; the opponent season total for three games this year is now just 52 yards on 27 attempts once cracking the Buff 20.

Georgia

Quickly... Colorado led UGA for 48:00, while UGA led for only the final :46... Colorado gained 159 yards in the first quarter, while Georgia gained 156 in the fourth; the two combined for just 282 their other three quarters combined... CU last held an opponent scoreless through three quarters at Oklahoma State last Oct. 1 in a 34-0 Buffalo win... Mason Crosby's 36-yard field goal in the third quarter marked CU's first points in the second half this season.

Slalom. Sophomore S Joel Adams, an alpine skier and member of CU's 2006 NCAA champion ski team, saw his first career action in the game, getting in the kickoff coverage unit on special teams.

Offense. Colorado gained 159 yards in the first quarter, easily its best quarter since the Missouri game in 2005, and its 241 yards in the first half exceeded its total offense in any of its first three games this season. CU ran 38 plays for the 241 yards in the first half, including 18 in Georgia territory for 152 yards; UGA ran just three in Buff territory for 3 yards.

Rushing Defense. Colorado's rushing defense is the real deal, as UGA had 27 attempts for just 54 yards, the third time in four games that the Buffaloes have held the opponent that total or less in four games. CU has allowed 301 in four games, or 75.3 per... in the red zone, Georgia had just four rushing attempts, three for losses and the Bulldogs a net minus-10 red zone rushing yards in the game; on the year, the opponent has 31 attempts for 42 yards running the ball once crossing the CU 20.

QB Bernard Jackson. Jackson rushed for a career-high 85 yards, the most by a CU quarterback since Kordell Stewart ran for 143 (on seven carries with 2 TDs) against Notre Dame in the 1995 Fiesta Bowl. Jackson also posted career highs in passing yards (140) and total offense (225).

DT George Hypolite. The sophomore had his first career sacks today (2-16), with one causing a fumble on UGA's first second half possession that led to a CU field goal.

Third Downs. Colorado averaged just 4.5 yards to go on six first half third down tries, but between holding penalties and a stiffening UGA defense, the Buffs averaged 12.9 yards to go on seven second half attempts (converting on a 3rd-and-6, its only try in the half under 12 yards).

OUCH... THERE'S NO OTHER WORD FOR IT

Colorado may have opened 0-4, but there's plenty of misery around the Big 12 Conference when it came to facing ranked opponents in 2006. In non-league play, the league went a combined 0-9 against top 25 teams. Colorado, as is its standard fare, was the only school to play as many as two, while four faced none. The eight schools that ventured to play ranked foes were outscored 209-99; Colorado had two of the most respectable outings, losing 21-3 to Arizona State (ASU scored a cosmetic touchdown in the final two minutes), and perhaps had the best showing against any ranked team with the 14-13 loss at Georgia (of course, this has to allow for the botched replay mess that cost Oklahoma a win at Oregon, as the Sooners' 34-33 "loss" is the only other contest besides CU-UGA decided by one score (eight points) or less.

CHARLES IS COLORADO'S 48TH TO 1,000

TB Hugh Charles rushed for 109 yards on 20 carries in the loss to Arizona State, becoming the 48th player in Colorado history to have rushed for 1,000 or more yards in a career in the process. Preliminary research indicates that the Buffs are one of the all-time leaders in the number of players who have rushed for 1,000-plus yards for a career. Oklahoma currently tops the list with 64, followed by Nebraska and USC (both 54). Turns out CU is among the national leaders to have as many players reach the 1K plateau; the list:

Oklahoma	64	Colorado	48	Iowa	36	North Carolina	34	Miami, Fla.	33
Nebraska	54	Texas	43	Penn State	35	Texas A&M	34	Virginia	33
Southern Cal	54	West Virginia	39	South Carolina	35	Air Force	33	Georgia Tech	31

BILLINGSLEY NEARS HISTORY

Senior SS J.J. Billingsley has 198 unassisted tackles in his career, and is on the verge of becoming just the 10th player in school history record 200 solo stops. Only two defensive backs have broached the plateau, Michael Lewis (225, 1998-2001) and Mickey Pruitt (201, 1984-87); both were also safeties. Lewis (336) and Pruitt (332) rank eighth and ninth all-time in tackles at Colorado, but are positioned 1-2 in tackles by a defensive back. Billingsley is currently 15th all-time with 284, which is the fourth DB; Steve Rosga, another safety, is in the third spot with 304 (181 solo).

PLAY COUNT LOW BORDERING ON THE RIDICULOUS

More and more is starting to be made of the NCAA Rules Committee change that has quickened college football games the first month of 2006. By starting the clock faster on possession changes (and on kickoffs when foot meets ball), people figured each team might lose 8-10 plays per game. Hmm... well, in week one, Colorado (54) and Montana State (70) combined for just 124 plays, only the 11th time in CU's last 234 games that fewer than 125 plays were run. Fast-forward to week two, and CU (48) and Colorado State (57) ran all of 105 plays, the fourth fewest combined in a Colorado game since 1946. 1946?! And two of the three lower than that total occurred in 1946: CU (45) and Wyoming (43) combined for 88 on Oct. 28, and CU (49) and Texas (54) for 103 on Sept. 28; on Oct. 2, 1954, CU (63) and Kansas (41) had 104. Rounding out the top/low five is Nov. 7, 1961, when CU (71) and Nebraska (35) had 106 in a fierce snowstorm in Lincoln (NU didn't have a first down that day). There were 136 total plays in the Arizona State game, still six below the average for CU and its opponent in 2005 (CU averaged 69 plays per game, the opponent 73 for a norm of 142). The number dipped to 122 in the Georgia game, with the 56 plays by the Bulldogs tied for the second fewest by an opponent in a win over CU since 1981 (Oklahoma State ran 54 in a 42-17 win in 2004).

➤ The average game time of a CU game in 2005 took three hours and 29 minutes; the CU-CSU contest lasted all of 2:48, tied for the third shortest since 1990.

SENIOR ANALYSIS

Colorado has 24 seniors on its 2006 roster, 15 of which are starters or practically co-starters in the rotation or on special teams: SS J.J. Billingsley, TE Paul Creighton, PK Mason Crosby, OG Brian Daniels, C Mark Fenton, TE Dan Goettsch, TB Mell Holliday, WR Nick Holz (holder), DE Alex Ligon, WR Blake Mackey, CB Lorenzo Sims, DE Walter Boye-Doe, CB Terry Washington, ILB Thaddaeus Washington and DE Abraham Wright. QB James Cox and OG Jack Tipton are serving as back-ups at present, and most of the others have some kind of role, and the last, S Dominique Brooks, is recovering from knee surgery and will redshirt this fall.

GRADUATION STAT(U)S

Three of the 24 seniors on the roster have already graduated, having done so this August: OLB Ben Carpenter (business-finance; he is working on a second major in integrative physiology), WR Nick Holz (communication) and DT Marcus Jones (economics; he is working on a second major in sociology). Nine are in position to graduate this December: ILB Jason Ackermann (sociology), QB James Cox (communication), TE Paul Creighton (psychology), OLB Chad Cusworth (business-management), C Mark Fenton (political science), DE Alex Ligon (sociology), WR Blake Mackey (communication), OL Jack Tipton (architecture-planning) and DE Abraham Wright (sociology). Ten others are on target for next May: S J.J. Billingsley (sociology), DE Walter Boye-Doe (business-finance & marketing), PK Mason Crosby (communication), OG Brian Daniels (business-finance), TE Dan Goettsch (sociology), TB Mell Holliday (psychology), CB Lorenzo Sims (sociology), CB Terry Washington (ethnic studies), ILB Thaddaeus Washington (sociology) and CB Vance Washington (sociology). S Dominique Brooks (sociology) and OL Bryce MacMartin (chemical engineering) will likely graduate beyond next May, Brooks due to consideration of a possible redshirt and MacMartin because his major requires additional credit hours. In addition, two juniors, OT Tyler Polumbus (business-management) and WR Dusty Sprague (business-management) are in position to graduate next May.

► NOTE: Over the last four years (2002-05), CU has had 77 of its 87 seniors, including medicals, graduate; that translates to 88.5 percent (with two of the 10 non-grads still in school and looking to graduate within the next year, while three are in the NFL). NCAA numbers will not match these (it doesn't allow a school to count transfers who graduate, i.e., Wayne Lucier in '02 or WR Mike Duren in '04), but it does count against a school if it had a player transfer. It's one of the reasons the numbers are skewed to be lower than they really are, especially a tougher academic schools like Colorado.

GAME #1—MONTANA STATE 19, COLORADO 10

(September 2; Boulder, Colo.)

BOULDER — Jeff Hastings connected on four field goals, the last a 41-yard effort with just 2:58 remaining to basically end any Colorado rally, as Montana State defeated the Buffaloes 19-10 in the first game for new CU head coach Dan Hawkins.

Montana State, ranked No. 22 in the I-AA national poll, hung around in the first half by playing solid defense and then outscored CU 13-0 after halftime to leave town with the win, its first over a Division I team since 1984. It was Colorado's first-ever game against a non-Division I team since the divisional setup was created in 1978.

Mason Crosby's 24-yard field goal opened the scoring, as not only did he give CU a 3-0 lead, he became Colorado's all-time leading kick scorer in the process. Hastings came back with 35- and 44-yard efforts to give MSU a 6-3 edge a minute into the second quarter. At that point, it seemed to light a fire under the Buffaloes, who answered with a 12-play, 74-yard drive capped by a 1-yard touchdown plunge by quarterback James Cox. CU would take that 10-6 lead into the lockerroom.

It stood to reason that CU would pull away in the second half, but no one told Montana State, as the Bobcats did not allow another first down until 11 minutes remained in the game. In the meantime, Cory Carpenter led MSU on a 7-play, 58-yard drive that ended with a 10-yard touchdown pass to Michael Jefferson, and the Bobcats were ahead to stay at 13-10.

While CU struggled offensively, the defense hung in there with at two goal line stands, stopping MSU on a 4th-and-goal from the 1 the first time and the second time holding the Bobcats to a 19-yard Hastings field goal. That 3-pointer made the score 16-10 with 5:12 to go; on the ensuing kickoff, Stephone Robinson fumbled at the Buff 26 and MSU recovered, setting the stage for Hastings' fourth kick that sealed the upset.

CU managed just 12 first downs and 216 yards on offense, its fewest in a season opener since 1979. Montana State, which ran 70 plays, or 16 more than the Buffs, amassed 288, though just 50 came on the ground on 35 tries.

GAME #2—COLORADO 14, COLORADO 10

(September 9; Denver, Colo.)

DENVER — Caleb Hanie ran for one touchdown and passed for another, and it was enough for Colorado State as defense ruled the day in the Rams 14-10 victory over Colorado in the Qwest Rocky Mountain Showdown presented by Dr Pepper.

CU saw its three-game winning streak in the series snapped, though early on it appeared that CSU might be in for a long afternoon after the Buffaloes marched 65 yards with the opening kickoff and took a 7-0 lead just five minutes into the game.

Bernard Jackson, making his first start at quarterback, picked up two first downs on the drive with runs of 10 and 14 yards, and scored the touchdown himself on a 3-yard third down run. Tailback Byron Ellis got Buffs started, as he carried the first two plays for 20 yards to drive the Buffs into CSU territory.

The Rams tied the score two possessions later, as Hanie matched Jackson with a 3-yard scoring run, that effort capping a 71-yard drive. Early in the second quarter, the Buffs converted the only turnover of the game into a Mason Crosby field goal, as his boot from 40 yards out also have CU its last lead of the day at 10-7.

No one knew at the time, but when Hanie hit Kory Sperry with a 5-yard pass in the back of the end zone with 3:48 on the clock, the day's scoring would come to an end. But the Rams made the lead stand in winning for just the 19th time in the 78-game series.

Hanie played the largest role in the win, as he completed his first 14 passes and finished 20-of-23 for 233 yards, with Johnny Walker hauling in 10 of those balls for 158 yards.

CU had it struggles on offense for the second straight game, especially in the second half, when the Buffs earned just two first downs and had 28 yards on offense. Though one score away from tying or taking the lead, Colorado did not cross its 41-yard line on any of its final three possessions and had just 146 yards for the game. CSU couldn't do a thing running the football, as the Rams had just 15 net rushing yards and had only 248 overall as well.

GAME #3—ARIZONA STATE 21, COLORADO 3

(September 16; Boulder, Colo.)

BOULDER — Hugh Charles rushed for 109 yards but was the only real offensive highlight for Colorado as the Buffaloes slowly succumbed to No. 22 Arizona State, 21-3.

ASU quarterback Rudy Carpenter threw for 248 yards and two touchdowns as the Sun Devils overcame two early fumbles and a 3-0 deficit to win the first game ever played between the schools from neighboring states.

Mason Crosby scored the only points on the night for the Buffs after Arizona State turned the ball over on the third play of the game. George Hypolite recovered a Shaun DeWitty fumble at the Arizona State 17, and Crosby nailed a 29-yarder after CU moved the ball just five yards. It was one of four Arizona State turnovers in the game, and the only one Colorado would convert into points.

The Sun Devils bounced back and drove to the Buff 2, but lost possession when Carpenter fumbled the ball on the run and it hit the pylon on its way out of bounds. On their next drive though, the Sun Devils did get the ball into the end zone as Ryan Torain capped a 10-play, 71-yard drive that put ASU ahead for good at 7-3. Carpenter then hooked up with Chis McGaha on an 18-yard TD pass to extend the lead to 14-3 when ASU got the ball back after a CU punt, the score set up by a 48-yard return by Terry Richardson.

The schools then stopped each other on the next 15 possessions combined, including the very next drive when CU marched to the ASU 2 where quarterback Bernard Jackson fumbled as he made his way to the goal line with the Sun Devils' Josh Barrett recovering the ball. Carpenter threw his second TD pass, this one to Zach Miller, to close the scoring with 1:33 left after ASU recovered a fumbled punt return try by Cha'pelle Brown at the Buff 20.

CU could not get untracked for a third straight time on offense, and failed to score in the second half for the third game in a row. The Buff defense held its own, limiting the potent ASU passing attack to just 10 plays of 10 or more yards (and just three of 20 or longer). The Sun Devils had 294 yards at halftime but mustered just 136 after intermission.

GAME #4—GEORGIA 14, COLORADO 13

(September 23; Athens, Ga.)

ATHENS, Ga. — Backup quarterback Joe Cox connected with tight end Martrez Milner on a 20-yard touchdown with just 46 seconds remaining to rally No. 9 Georgia to a 14-13 win over the upset-minded Colorado Buffaloes.

CU, in search of its first win for new head coach Dan Hawkins led the contest for exactly 48 minutes, building a 13-0 lead in silencing the 92,746 in attendance at UGA's Sanford Stadium for most of the afternoon. But once Cox entered the game, the Bulldogs came alive and were finally able to move the ball against a stout Colorado defense.

He took over late in the third quarter and directed UGA deep into CU territory, where the Buffs responded with the first of two fourth down stops inside the red zone. But on the next series, Cox threw a 23-yard touchdown pass to Brannan Southerland to get the Bulldogs on the board with 9:11 remaining.

The Buffs had a chance to put the game away on the next series, and seemed to be in business after Bernard Jackson completed a 14-yard pass on third down to Alvin Barnett to the CU 44. But on the next play, tailback Hugh Charles ran hard for nine yards but lost the ball, with Jeff Owens recovering for UGA near midfield.

UGA earned a first down at the CU 18 after just two plays, but the Colorado defense again rose to the challenge. Ryan Walters threw Gregg Lumpkin for a 3-yard loss on 3rd-and-one at the CU 9, followed by Abraham Wright knocking down Cox's pass on fourth down. But UGA forced CU into punting with 2:29 left, setting up the winning scoring drive.

CU had methodically built its lead, getting on the board with 3:14 left in the first quarter on a 26-yard Mason Crosby field goal. Then early in the second quarter, the Buffs put together its most explosive offensive drive of the season, marching 63 yards in just four plays. Jackson hit Dusty Sprague for 16 yards and followed it up with a 28-yard run to the UGA 19. He then completed an 18-yard pass to Hugh Charles who took it down to the 1, where Jackson took it over for a 10-0 lead.

Crosby added a 36-yard field goal early in the third quarter after George Hypolite sacked Georgia starting QB Matthew Stafford, forcing and recovering a fumble at the UGA 19.

Colorado posted season offensive bests in every major category, yards (313), rushing yards (173), passing yards (140), first downs (17) and time of possession (34:09). Defensively, the Buffs limited Georgia to only 54 yards on the ground, but the Bulldogs passed for 230, most in the fourth quarter when making their comeback.

RECORD WATCH

The list of records that have been set to date in 2006; PK Mason Crosby had the first official entry when he became the school's all-time leading kick scorer with a 24-yard field goal against Montana State. Crosby is in position to set numerous records, school, conference and possibly NCAA. Crosby already owns or shares 16 records early in his senior year and has several more just ahead of him. NOTE: A reminder that when it comes to records, CU did not adopt the NCAA 2002 policy of adding bowl game statistics in its season or career numbers.

THE BUFFS AGAINST THE BEST

Here's a look at how CU has fared all-time against nationally ranked teams (Associated Press poll):

Games	All-Time Record	1989-06 Record	Dan Hawkins Record	Coach With The Most Wins
versus Top 5.....	11-48-2	7-16-1	0-0	5 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 10.....	24-83-3	13-28-2	0-1	8 / Eddie Crowder & Bill McCartney
versus Top 15.....	36-100-3	19-33-2	0-1	10 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 25.....	66-128-3	40-47-2	0-2	20 / Bill McCartney

CU and Nebraska have been the saving grace for the Big 12: the 11-year old league owns a 27-67 record against ranked non-conference opponents (including bowls) since its inception in 1996, and the Buffs own eight of those wins. CU is 8-11 against ranked non-Big 12 foes; Nebraska is 8-5, Texas 4-6, Kansas State 2-4, Oklahoma 2-2, Baylor 1-3, Iowa State 1-8, Texas Tech 1-8, Kansas 0-2, Oklahoma State 0-4, Missouri 0-5 and Texas A&M 0-9. CU has played 17 of the 87 games, with Nebraska next with 12 (no one else has played 10).

Against all-non league foes (non-conference opponents and bowl games), the records are: Nebraska 38-6, Kansas State 36-6, Oklahoma State 29-8, Texas 31-10, Oklahoma 30-11, Missouri 27-11, Texas A&M 29-12, Kansas 25-11, Iowa State 26-12, Texas Tech 29-14, Baylor 20-15 and Colorado 23-19 (remember traditionally CU plays one of the Big 12's, and the nation's, more challenging schedules and has avoided scheduling automatic wins for non-league games).

TRENDS

Since 1985, when the Buffs returned to their traditional winning ways after six frustrating years, Colorado is 168-87-4, the 16th best record nationally in this span). In these 259 games, CU has posted the following records (including bowls):

◆ with 400-plus yards total offense	100-16-2	◆ when holding opponent under 300 yards total offense	82-15-1
◆ with 500-plus yards total offense	50- 5-0	◆ when leading at halftime (121-14-2 in last 137)	137-16-2
◆ when leading in time of possession	109-22-3	◆ when leading after three quarters (137-11-3 in last 151)	141-13-3
◆ when making 20-plus first downs	103-27-1	◆ when scoring 24 or more points	136-17-2
◆ when converting 50 percent or better on 3rd down	65- 7-1	◆ when scoring 14 or more points	165-50-4
◆ when punting three or fewer times	60-11-1	◆ when held to 13 points or less	3-37-0
◆ when scoring first	108-25-1	◆ when not committing a turnover or allowing a sack	12- 0-0
◆ with two or fewer turnovers (30-8-2 with zero)	121-40-2	◆ when passing for more yards than rushing	70-57-2
◆ when holding opponent to 17 points or less	100-17-1	◆ when holding edge in 1st downs & possession time	91-15-2
◆ when holding opponent under 100 yards rushing	85-10-1

TRENDS II

Since 1989, when the Buffs became a regular in the national rankings, Colorado has posted the nation's 16th best overall record at 140-68-4. Here are some trends during this time frame (212 games, including bowls):

➤ when running more plays than the opponent	77-24-3	➤ when rushing for 200-plus yards	73- 4-1
➤ with 400-plus yards total offense (45-5 with 500-plus)	86-16-2	➤ when rushing for 250-plus yards	50- 1-1
➤ when scoring 30 or more points	92- 5-1	➤ when rushing for 300-plus yards	30- 0-1
➤ when leading in possession time (52-47-1 when not)	88-20-3	➤ when rushing and passing for at least 200 yards	31- 2-0
➤ when making 20-plus first downs	90-24-1	➤ when passing for 200-plus yards	74-33-2
➤ when converting 50 percent or better on 3rd down	51- 6-1	➤ when passing for 300-plus yards (10-0-1 400-plus)	25-11-1
➤ when scoring first (75-16-1 the last 92 times)	86-19-1	➤ when passing for more yards than rushing	70-57-2
➤ with two or fewer turnovers (24-8-2 with zero)	103-34-2	➤ when holding edge in 1st downs & possession time	73-14-2
➤ when holding opponent to 17 points or less	76-10-1	➤ when holding edge in field position	111-19-1
➤ when holding opponent under 100 yards rushing	69-10-1	➤ when not committing a turnover or allowing a sack	11- 0-0
➤ when holding opponent under 300 yards total offense	61-10-1	➤ when out-rushing the opponent	113- 9-3
➤ when average field position is CU 30+ (23-2 40+)	100-28-2	➤ when owning the edge in return yards	105-24-2
➤ when play selection is 50 percent rushing calls	117-22-2

TRENDS III

Some trends of new Colorado coach Dan Hawkins both overall and at his former school, Boise State; totals are for 68 games including bowls (53-15); the Broncos were 53-11 under his guidance in five seasons:

Category	At CU	Overall	Category	At CU	Overall
➤ when scoring 20 or more points (0-9 when not)	0- 0	53- 6	➤ when leading after three (6-11 trailing ,2-0 tied)	0- 1	45- 2
➤ when scoring 30 or more points	0- 0	47- 2	➤ when holding opponent under 100 yards rushing	0- 3	32- 5
➤ when scoring 40 or more points	0- 0	35- 2	➤ when holding opponent under 300 yards offense	0- 3	24- 3
➤ when scoring 50 or more points	0- 0	19- 0	➤ when rushing for 200-plus yards	0- 0	32- 0
➤ when holding opponent to 17 points or less	0- 2	29- 2	➤ when rushing for 250-plus yards (6-0 300-plus)	0- 0	22- 0
➤ in games decided by 7 points or less	0- 2	10- 7	➤ when rushing for more yards than passing	0- 2	18- 3
➤ with two or fewer turnovers (7-0 with zero)	0- 3	38-11	➤ with a 100-yard rusher	0- 1	27- 1
➤ when turnover margin was plus or even	0- 3	39-10	➤ when rushing and passing for at least 200 yards	0- 0	25- 0
➤ when scoring first (17-8 when not)	0- 4	36- 7	➤ with 400-plus yards total offense (40-0 last 40)	0- 0	44- 2
➤ when leading at halftime	0- 2	43- 5	➤ with 500-plus yards total offense (5-0 with 600-plus)	0- 0	23- 1
➤ when trailing at halftime (4-0 when tied)	0- 2	6-11

TURNOVERS ARE COSTLY

Dan Hawkins falls in line with most, if not all, head coaches when it comes to turnovers, and that they are one of the single most important factors in winning or losing ball games. He has penalties and rewards daily in the practice dependent on the number of turnovers committed or forced. Gary Barnett drilled home to his teams the importance of taking care of the football, which he learned from the legendary Bill McCartney. Statistics back up the argument, as the below will show that it is definitely better to take than to give over the last 17 seasons, in which CU owns the nation's 16th best overall record:

	Turnovers Committed	Turnovers Forced	+/-	Scoring Off Turnovers		+/-
				PF	PA
140 WINS	235	358	+123	1,198	456	+742
68 LOSSES (& 4 TIES)	183	118	- 65	271	592	-321
17-SEASON TOTAL (212 Games)	418	476	+58	1,469	1,048	+421

ANNIVERSARIES

The annual listing of what happened years ago, or anniversaries of 5, 10 and 25-year increments:

- 1936 (Nov. 6) Byron White scores 25 points against Utah in Boulder in a 31-7 CU victory; White scored four touchdowns and kicked a PAT to establish a Buff record.
- 1951 (Nov. 17) Colorado defeats Nebraska, 36-14, in the first-ever television appearance for the Buffaloes (NBC).
- 1956 The 50th anniversary of CU's first bowl champion team, as the '56 Buffaloes were 7-2-1 in the regular season and defeated Clemson 27-21 in the Orange Bowl.
- 1961 Colorado wins its first Big Eight Conference title, going 7-0 in league play and 9-1 overall before losing to LSU in the Orange Bowl (25-7). Along the way, CU posted key wins over Kansas (20-19, after trailing 19-0 early in the fourth quarter), Missouri (7-6) and Nebraska (holding the Cornhuskers to 31 yards of total offense and no first downs).
- 1966 Hale Irwin earns All-Big 8 honors for a second straight year at defensive back and leads CU to a second place finish in the Big 8.
- 1981 The 25th anniversary of the most dramatic comeback in CU history, as the Buffs defeat Oklahoma State 11-10 after trailing 10-3 with a minute left and facing a second-and-14 from its own 4. Steve Vogel connects with Brad Parker for a 9-yard touchdown and then hits Derek Singleton for the 2-point conversion for the win; it was the last time Singleton ever touched the ball, as he fell ill with spinal meningitis the next week and died New Year's Day 1982.
- 1971 Thirty-five years ago, a sophomore-laden CU team opened up with a couple of huge upsets on the road at Louisiana State and Ohio State and went on to finish 10-2 and ranked No. 3 in the nation—the only time one conference has produced the top three schools in a final poll, as Nebraska was ranked No. 1 and Oklahoma No. 2 (the only teams to defeat CU in '71);
- 1976 A 35-28 win at Kansas State creates a three-way tie for the Big 12 title, but CU gets the nod over Oklahoma and Oklahoma State thanks to wins over both; CU goes on to the Orange Bowl where it falls 27-10 to Ohio State.
- 1986 In a game commonly referred to as "The Turning Point," CU's 20-10 win over No. 3 Nebraska has the nation take notice of the rising Buffalo program; the Buffs rebound from an 0-4 start and play for the Big Eight title (losing to Oklahoma), but earn a berth in the Bluebonnet Bowl;
- 1991 CU claims a third straight Big Eight title, though this one is shared with Nebraska as both are 6-0-1 in league play; the 19-19 tie between the two in Boulder on Nov. 2 is the coldest game in CU history (12 degrees, but the wind chill is minus-8).
- 1996 Matt Russell wins the Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker, highlighting a 10-2 season in which Koy Detmer became the first (and only) player in school history to pass for over 3,000 yards in a season.
- 2001 CU wins its first Big 12 Conference title, as the Buffs ascend to No. 2 in the final regular season polls but miss out on appearing in the BCS National Championship game by a mere fraction of a point despite ending the year with a 62-36 win over Nebraska and a 39-37 verdict over Texas in the league title game. The Buffs drop a 38-16 decision to No. 3 Oregon in the Fiesta Bowl.

REUNIONS

Three weekends will serve as reunions for various former CU athletes in 2006:

- September 15-16: the 30-year reunion of CU's 1976 Big Eight champion football team (six coaches, including head coach Bill Mallory, and 40 players returned);
- October 6-7: the annual gathering of those alumni who lettered 50 years ago;
- October 12-14: Hall of Fame Weekend, featuring the induction of this year's class (TBA) as well as honoring Bobby Anderson, the fourth CU player to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. The 1966 football seniors will also hold their own 40th class reunion.

2006 NCAA RULES CHANGES

The NCAA Football Rules Committee approved several changes this past February; here's a list of the most significant:

- Instant Replay. The committee approved one procedure for all institutions and conferences that choose to use instant replay: that is for the replay official in the press box to review all plays on the field and stop the game if a play is on the list of all reviewable plays and has a direct, competitive impact on the game. Each team will also now have one challenge during the game (as the Mountain West has had). If the challenge overturns a call on the field, the coach retains the right to challenge later in the game and is not charged a timeout; if the call is not reversed, the team is charged a timeout and the coach does not have the ability to challenge again in the game. The coach may not challenge a ruling if his team is out of timeouts in either half.
- Game Clock. To help reduce the length of games, the clock will now start when the foot touches the ball on kickoffs and free kicks (instead of when the return man touches the ball). The clock will also now be started on the ready to play signal on a new possession, instead on the snap of the ball, much as it is now when a team earns a first down.
- Kicking Tee. The kicking tee has been reduced from two inches to one inch as a method of reducing the number of touchbacks.
- Procedural Fouls on Punts & Kickoffs. The receiving team will now have the option of accepting the penalty after the return or forcing the kicking team to kick again five yards from the original line of scrimmage (should eliminate some re-kicks).

THIS-N-THAT

- 300. Colorado comes into the 2006 season with a 177-116-5 all-time record in games played on artificial surfaces, thus the Buffaloes will hit a milestone of sorts this year. This week at Missouri marks CU's 299th game on the fake stuff, and then number 300 on Oct. 28 at Kansas.
- 400. Colorado enters 2006 with 395 combined wins in the seven different conferences it has lined up to play football in. Thus, five victories would give the Buffaloes 400 all-time wins in conference play, dating back to the Colorado Football Association in the 1890s.
- 1100. The Nov. 24 game at Nebraska will be the 1,100th in school history; the Huskers were also CU's opponent for the school's 100th game in football annals, as CU defeated NU 6-0 back in 1904, deemed one of the school's biggest wins ever at the time.
- Mirror Images. Here's a goofy scheduling quirk: the Buffaloes hosted Arizona State on September 16, while the Colorado Rockies play at the Arizona Diamondbacks (both based in the Phoenix area); on September 23, the Buffs played at Georgia, while the Rockies hosted the Atlanta Braves. It was close to a trifecta, as on September 30 when the Buffs play at Missouri, the Rox are at the Chicago Cubs, just up the road from St. Louis.
- TSN Players Poll. The first-ever Players Top 25 will be conducted this fall with the weekly results to be included in The Sporting News. Unlike the other polls, the players will not be identified and will be known only to the schools. Colorado has agreed to be one of the schools to participate in the experimental balloting; the selected player(s) won't be identified until after the season has concluded.

CAREER GAMES PLAYED/STARTED CHART

Listed below is the career games played/started, including bowls, for the players on the 2006 Colorado Buffaloes. The players on this year's opening roster collectively had played in 1,053 games, with 273 starts, not too far off from last year's numbers (1,080 and 314, respectively), which was the most experienced overall since the late 1990's. Recent past numbers entering the year: 1,080/314 (2005), 761/182 (2004), 845/239 (2003), 883/278 (2002), 694/223 (2000) and 790/229 (1999). The list (includes bowls):

STARTING STREAKS

C Mark Fenton owns the longest starting streak on the team at 30 games, dating back to the first game of his sophomore season in 2004; that will now come to an end with his leg injury. After him, the next players are SS J.J. Billingsley and DE Abraham Wright, both with 17, followed by ILB Thaddeus Washington (15) and OG Brian Daniels (14). Daniels owns the most career starts with 37 (he was sidelined for a game with broken ribs early in 2005 or his streak would be continuous), followed by Billingsley (35), CB Lorenzo Sims (29) and ILB Jordon Dizon and Washington (27).

NINETEEN HAVE SEEN FIRST CU ACTION TO DATE IN 2006

Through four games, 19 players have seen their first action as a Colorado Buffalo. In the season opener against Montana State, 14 players stepped onto the field for the first time in a Colorado uniform, including the only four true freshmen who have played to date: DT Jason Brace, CB Cha'pelle Brown, LS Justin Drescher and ILB Michael Sipili. Last year, 16 saw their first action while 24 did so in both 2004 and 2003. The list of Buffs to hit the field for the first time in 2006 (*—mainly special teams duty):

TRUE FRESHMEN (4): DT Jason Brace, *CB Cha'pelle Brown, *LS Justin Drescher, *ILB Michael Sipili

REDSHIRT FRESHMEN (7): *OT Paul Backowski, P Matt DiLallo, TE Riar Geer, OL Devin Head, DT Taj Kaynor, *TB Kevin Moyd, *ILB Jeff Smart

SOPHOMORES (5): *S Joel Adams, *TE Justin Adams, WR Cody Crawford, *P Isaac Garden, OL Jeremy Hauck

JUNIORS (2): TE Tyson DeVree, FB Samson Jagoras

SENIORS (1): TB Mell Holliday

(The four true frosh who have played for CU is not on the radar nationally; Temple has played 19 and Illinois 16 as 17 schools have played nine or more.)

FOURTEEN MAKE FIRST CAREER STARTS IN FIRST FOUR GAMES

Fourteen players have made their first career starts in 2006. Eight did so in the season opener against Montana State: S Benjamin Burney, TE Riar Geer, OG Devin Head, DT George Hypolite, FB Samson Jagoras, OLB Brad Jones, DT Brandon Nicolas and WR Patrick Williams. Three more followed in the CSU game in Denver: TE Dan Goettsch, QB Bernard Jackson and FS Ryan Walters; two more in game three versus Arizona State: TE Tyson DeVree and WR Stephone Robinson; and one in the first road game at Georgia: WR Cody Crawford. Last year, 11 players made their first career starts in a CU uniform (all returned this fall). In 2003, 20 players made their first career starts, the most first starts in since 1998, when there were 27 first-time starters for the Buffaloes, 17 on offense and 10 on defense. Those were the most since 1984, when 29 made their first starts (15 on offense). The annual number of first-time starters since 1984:

ANNUAL FIRST-TIME STARTERS: 1984 (29), 1985 (9), 1986 (15), 1987 (14), 1988 (16), 1989 (7), 1990 (16), 1991 (23), 1992 (15), 1993 (7), 1994 (6), 1995 (11), 1996 (8), 1997 (14), 1998 (27), 1999 (14), 2000 (16), 2001 (12), 2002 (16), 2003 (20), 2004 (12), 2005 (11) and 2006 (14).

EXPERIENCE ANALYSIS

In 2004, seniors started the fewest percentage of games (25.1) since the 1995 team (which had only seven seniors), while 38.8 percent of the starts were made by underclassmen. That showed the youth of the team, especially since underclassmen also had 41.7 percent of the starts in 2003. Fast-forward to 2005, and for 13 games, 80 percent of the starters were seniors (116) and juniors (112), with sophomores starting in all but 10 of the other 58 slots. In 2002, the numbers were flopped as well: upperclassmen started 93 percent of the games. It's basically a cyclical pattern, and that shows up when looking at the breakdown of the starters over the course of the season. A year-by-year look at starts by class:

- 2006 starters (4 games): Seniors (32), Juniors (29), Sophomores (23), Freshmen (4; redshirts 4, true 0). Upperclassmen: 69%
- 2005 starters (13 games): Seniors (116), Juniors (112), Sophomores (48), Freshmen (10; redshirts 4, true 5). Upperclassmen: 80%
- 2004 starters (13 games): Seniors (72), Juniors (103), Sophomores (100), Freshmen (11; redshirts 0, true 11). Upperclassmen: 39%
- 2003 starters (12 games): Seniors (105), Juniors (49), Sophomores (78), Freshmen (32; redshirts 14, true 18). Upperclassmen: 58%
- 2002 starters (14 games): Seniors (155), Juniors (130), Sophomores (14), Freshmen (9; redshirts 0, true 9). Upperclassmen: 93%
- 2001 starters (13 games): Seniors (102), Juniors (95), Sophomores (83), Freshmen (7; redshirts 7, true 0). Upperclassmen: 69%
- 2000 starters (11 games): Seniors (55), Juniors (116), Sophomores (38), Freshmen (33; redshirts 15, true 18). Upperclassmen: 71%
- 1999 starters (12 games): Seniors (115), Juniors (42), Sophomores (86), Freshmen (21; redshirts 20, true 1) Upperclassmen: 56%

NFL SCOUT WATCH

Colorado has 24 seniors on its roster this season, and history will show that most, if not all NFL teams pass through Boulder or a road site for CU game every season. So far this year, 25 scouts from as 18 teams have seen the Buffs in person on game day (and at least eight are coming for the CU-ASU game). The 2006 NFL roll call of teams that have seen the Buffs: Arizona, Atlanta, Baltimore, Buffalo, Carolina, Chicago, Cleveland, Dallas, Denver, Green Bay, Kansas City, Minnesota, New England, N.Y. Giants, San Francisco, St. Louis, Seattle and Tampa Bay. It's the norm, as in last year, 55 scouts representing 25 NFL teams attended games (49 from 23 did so in 2004), and this decade, all 32 teams have seen CU games in person (261 scouts in the five-year period). Reps from the Colorado Crush (Arena Football League) also routinely attend games in Boulder.

"OUTSIDE THE NINE DOTS"

Some out of the ordinary records by the Buffs in some unique situations:

- ❑ Colorado is 73-28 in its last 101 games against teams who were not undefeated at the time of the game;
- ❑ Colorado is 70-15 against teams with three or more losses dating back to the 1985 season;
- ❑ Colorado is 61-20-1 in its last 82 games against schools that include the word "State" (dating to 1986);
- ❑ Colorado is 17-11 since 1986 against teams ranked between Nos. 20 and 25 in the AP poll (8-5 in the last 13);
- ❑ Colorado is 70-14-2 before crowds under 50,000 since the start of the 1989 season (20-6 last 25; 73-50-2 with 50,000-plus);

A BAKER'S DOZEN OF THEFTS & SCORES

CU players have a penchant to return their first career interceptions for touchdowns, as since 1992, 13 Buffaloes have scored after stealing their first college pass. The latest was one of the most spectacular of the lot: ILB Marcus Burton returned a pick 99 yards at Oklahoma State, preserving CU's shutout in the waning seconds of the game. Three did it along in 2004: OLB Brian Iwuh did it off the bat in 2004 when he made his first career pick and returned it 37 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown against Colorado State; a week later, he was injured early against Washington State, and his sub, Joe Sanders, plucked off a ball and raced 51 yards for six, snapping a 3-3 deadlock in the process. Against Texas, CB Terrence Wheatley plucked one off and race 37 yards for six with his first theft. Two did it in 2001: S Medford Moorer picked off his first career pass and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown against Texas in the Big 12 Championship game, while CB Donald Strickland returned his first career pick 31 yards for a touchdown just one minute into the CSU game. Frosh redshirt CB Phil Jackson did it in 2000, as he returned his first career INT 28 yards for a TD against Washington. SS Rashidi Barnes had his first one in CU's win over CSU in 1997, returning it 26 yards for a score, rallying the Buffs into a 14-14 tie early in the second half. Barnes was the fourth Buff in a 14-game span to return a first career pick for a TD—Marcus Washington had a 95-yard theft for a score in the '96 Cotton Bowl against Oregon; Vili Maumau had a 33-yard interception for six (and a Hula dance) at Colorado State in 1996; and Nick Ziegler stole one for a 31-yard score against Washington in the '96 Holiday Bowl. Ben Kelly didn't do with an interception, but he did take his first career punt return back for a TD (against Utah State). In 1992, Dwayne Davis returned one 31 yards for a TD in a 21-20 win at Minnesota to start this amazing run.

BUFFALO DINOSAURS

Through four games in 2006, the radio voice of the Buffs, Larry Zimmer, has called 411 games in his career, including 148 in a row (he's only missed three bowl games, two due to contracts forbidding teams to originate broadcasts, and three regular season games due to travel conflicts); his 400th at CU was also the 1,000 of his professional career. SID Dave Plati has worked 313, including the last 271 in a row, while facilities man John Krueger has worked 271 in all (121 straight). Brian Cabral is the football staffer with the most "Buff" experience, as he has now coached in 212 in a row as an assistant coach; including his playing days (46 games), he has been a part of 258 CU games. The late Fred Casotti, the school's longtime SID and associate AD between 1952-87, witnessed 477 CU football games in person prior to his passing in 2001; included within that was a string of 268 in a row at one time at Folsom Field. Senior associate AD Jon Burianek who retired this past June, is next as he worked 432 CU football games, including a closing run of 415 in a row (229 of which were at home; he's seen 453 all told). And the late F.M. "Dutch" Westerberg is the all-timer; he saw every CU home game (394 of 'em) from 1921 until 1999, when he passed away at the age of 94.

TWO-MINUTE WARNING

Colorado has scored 110 times in 173 tries, including 18 game winning or tying scores, when the offense has been put into the two-minute drill since 1988 (or 64 percent of the time). CU is 0-of-4 in 2005: 0-of-2 versus Montana State, 0-of-1 versus Colorado State and 0-1 at Georgia. In 2005, CU was 4-of-9: the Buffs were 1-for-2 against CSU, including the game winning field goal, 1-of-1 with a first half TD march against New Mexico State, 0-of-1 at Miami, 1-of-1 at OSU (first half field goal), 1-of-1 at Texas (first half TD) and 0-of-1 at Iowa State, versus Nebraska and against Clemson in the bowl. CU was 4-for-5 in 2004, including a second half go-ahead score at Texas A&M and the game winning touchdown versus Kansas State. In 2003, the Buffs scored twice in as many tries in the season opener against Colorado State, registering a TD at the end of the first half and the game-winning score at the end of the game—CU's first in the two-minute drill since 1999. Lo and behold, the Buffs did it again in the offense the following week, putting the game winning score on the board with 2:15 left against UCLA. One of the most prolific years in the drill came in 1994, when CU was 7-of-8; that included two scores in the final two minutes at Michigan, including that certain play of the decade. Between 1988 and 1994, Colorado was an amazing 61-of-81 in the two-minute offense, with 44 touchdowns. The chart showing CU's scores:

SAFELY AHEAD

The Buffs have been a virtual lock to win once they have a lead of two or more scores (nine-plus points) over the past 30 seasons. Since 1976 (game 1), CU has protected a two-score lead 203 of 217 times, losing 10 and tying three when it blew the lead. A closer look (*—Disneyland Pigskin Classic at Anaheim):

Colorado has lost only 17 games (and was tied twice) dating back to 1980 when leading by any margin at any point in the fourth quarter or overtime. The most recent loss came at Georgia this year, when the Buffs led 13-0 entering the quarter and lost with just 46 seconds remaining as UGA won, 14-13. In conference play, only Kansas (1984), Nebraska (1984, 1998, 1999, 2001), Oklahoma State (1997) and Texas A&M (2004) have rallied in the fourth to topple CU in this span. The ties came against Tennessee in 1990 (31-31, after leading 31-17) and Kansas State in 1993 (16-16 after taking a late 16-13 lead).

- Colorado has won 87 of its last 93 games in which it at any point has held a two-score lead—Georgia snapped the current streak at 9—and 14 of the last 16. A 2003 loss to Baylor snapped a 26-game winning streak in such situations on the road, and an overall streak of 49 consecutive wins between 1993 and 1999 was snapped in 2000 (to CSU; Iowa State also did it later that year).
- In this same span, Colorado has rallied to win 29 games and tie two others dating back to 1981 after once trailing at some point in the fourth quarter (not including coming from 27-3 down against Nebraska in 1999 before losing in OT). The two most recent wins of this variety came against Texas-El Paso in the 2004 Houston Bowl and in the season opener against CSU this season (rallying from 9 and 11 points down, respectively).

DOMINATION

Colorado has only 21 losses to unranked teams since dropping the 1987 season opener to Oregon: to BYU (1988 Freedom Bowl), Stanford (1991), Missouri (1997), Kansas (1998), CSU, Washington and Texas Tech (1999), CSU, Texas A&M and Kansas (2000), Fresno State (2001), CSU and Wisconsin (2002), Washington State, Baylor and Kansas State (2003), Missouri (2004), Iowa State and Nebraska (2005) and Montana State and CSU this year. On several occasions, teams used the win over the Buffs to gain national notoriety and/or move into the rankings following the win. The Buffs are 82-19-2 in their last 102 games against unranked teams (AP), along with a record of 113-20-2 in the last 134. The Buffs are 150-68-4 in regular season games since the start of the 1986 Big Eight Conference season (8-8 in bowls); 104-47-3 in Big 8/12 games (including four league title games) and 46-21-1 in non-conference regular season action.

LITTLE KNOWN RARITY

In CU history, the Buffaloes have had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game on 26 occasions (and is 20-6 in games when this occurs). It's happened nine times over the last six-plus seasons, three times in 2004: at Texas A&M (TB Bobby Purify/WR Dusty Sprague), versus Kansas State (Purify/WR Ron Monteilh) and at Nebraska (Purify/WR Blake Mackey). It happened three games in a row late in 2001, including the first time the same player had 100 yards in both in the same game (TB Cortlen Johnson at Iowa State: 172 rushing and 105 receiving); Johnson and TE Daniel Graham did it against Missouri, Graham and TB's Chris Brown and Bobby Purify all did it against Nebraska. A closer look at this unique list can be found on page 171 of the 2004 CU football media guide (yes, last year's book; thanks again, NCAA).

STAT SHOTS

Here are some interesting statistical bullets about Colorado football:

- ➔ 30+. In its history, Colorado is 285-10-1 when scoring 30 or more points, along with records of 205-3 with 35-plus points and 190-2 with 36-plus, 167-1 with 38-plus and 107-0 with 43 or more tallies. The three losses with 35 more points came to Air Force (58-35 in 1968), Oklahoma (82-42 in 1980) and Stanford (41-37 in 1993). Colorado has played 1,091 games in its history, and has registered final point totals of every number between 0 and 70 except 68 (and of course 1), and has hit 75 and 109 above that mark.
- ➔ Colorado is 7-15-1 in its last 23 games against top five teams (dating back to 1989) and is 13-29-2 against top 10 schools and 40-47-2 against all ranked teams in the same time frame.
- ➔ Colorado is 14-4 (in-season) following a loss to a top 10 team since the middle of 1993. That includes two games in 2005, when CU bested Kansas, 44-13, after dropping a 42-17 decision at No. 2 Texas in October, and the losses at the end of the year to No. 2 Texas in the Big 12 title game and to Clemson in the bowl.
- ➔ Colorado is 90-37-3 in its last 130 league games, and has the ninth fewest conference losses in the nation since 1989 for schools that have been league members for that time period. Within this record is a 25-game span in which CU did not lose a conference game, the fourth longest streak all-time in the Big Eight (1958-1995). Colorado was 23-0-2 during that run.
- ➔ Colorado has scored 30 or more points in 98 of its last 212 games, posting a 92-5-1 record. The losses were at Stanford, 41-37 in 1993, to Missouri in Boulder in 1997, 41-31, and twice to Nebraska (in Boulder in 1999, 33-30, in overtime; and 34-32 at Lincoln in 2000) and at Baylor in 2003 (42-30). The tie was a 31-31 affair with Tennessee in the 1990 Disneyland Pigskin Classic. The Buffs have scored at least three touchdowns in 146 of these 212 games, dating to the start of 1989, going 120-26-2 (CU is 20-42-2 when held to two or fewer touchdowns).
- ➔ CU has allowed only 351 touchdowns in the last 690 times that the enemy has cracked its 20 (dating back to 1988; the other 339 times have yielded 171 field goals as well as 168 non-scores). In this time frame, that works to the opponent coming away with nothing 24% of the time when penetrating the CU 20, and three points or less 49% of the time, which are astonishing numbers. In Dan Hawkins' first year, the opponent has penetrated the CU red zone 14 times, with 7 touchdowns, 2 field goals and 6 non-scores.
- ➔ Since the middle of the 1998 season, the Buffalo "D" has rose to the occasion when the opponent has started a drive inside CU territory. Going back to the last six games in 1998 to the present, CU has allowed just 79 touchdowns out of 191 drives started on the CU side of the 50 (and just 110 scores overall, meaning 81 non-scores). In 2006, the opponent has 6 scores (3 TD, 3 FG) out of 7 drives started in CU territory; over the last four seasons, CU's allowed just 65 scores (50 TD/15 FG) in 110 drives started from the 50 on into CU territory.
- ➔ CU has topped 400 yards of total offense in 45 of its last 109 contests (twice in 2005, five times in '04), as CU has made a habit of it since the start of the 1993 season. In 163 games in this span, CU has gained 400 or more yards 82 times (51 percent). The Buffaloes also have topped the 500-plus yard mark in 41 of the 163 games since the '93 season opener (25%)... and remember CU has played 70 ranked teams in this span.
- ➔ For years, the mark of a strong Colorado team was that the Buffaloes routinely averaged six or more yards on first down. In 2005, CU averaged well over six yards nine games into the year, finishing at 5.7 yards on first down plays; the last time the Buffs averaged six or more for a season was 2001, their Big 12 Championship year. Colorado did it six times between 1989 and 1997, including a team record best of 7.2 in both 1989 and 1994.
 - ➔ Colorado is averaging 4.7 per first down play in 2006, with less than half (45 of 97) of the plays netting five or more yards. The opponent has an edge in all sizeable gains on the down, but also on plays with two or fewer yards (52-45) and plays of zero gain (31-18).
- ➔ Colorado had seven touchdowns by returns in 2001 (4 interception, 2 punt, 1 fumble), a school record that the 2002 team matched (3 fumble, 2 interception, 2 punt). In 2004, the Buffs had six; dating back to the fifth game of the 1999 season, an OT win over Missouri, the Buffs have 37 scores by return in their last 88 games. And since the '95 opener and including postseason, CU has 58 scores by return in 139 games (51 regular season, seven bowl), or two every five games.
- ➔ 200/200. Colorado topped 200 yards both rushing and passing once in 2005 (against New Mexico State) as CU has accomplished the 200 "double-double" 10 times in the last 91 games (and 31 times in the last 163, dating to 1993). CU averaged over 200 in each for the season in both 1993 and 1994 (the first times ever at CU), as well as in 2001 (228.5/205.9). The Buffs are 31-2 since 1989 when they have reached the 200 plateaus in both. Prior to '93, CU had accomplished the feat only 19 times in its first 929 games in its history.
- ➔ Grass. Colorado is 54-43-1 in its last 98 games on grass, dating back to the 1985 season (51-36 in the last 87, including a 27-15 mark at home since Folsom Field converted back to grass in 1999).
- ➔ Artificial Turf. Colorado is 90-27-3 in its last 120 games on non-grass fields dating back to 1989, including a 57-20-3 in conference games. CU was 2-0 in 2005 and 3-1 in 2004 on artificial surfaces.
- ➔ CU quarterbacks have traditionally taken care of the football, as Buff slingers thrown just 154 interceptions in 4,996 attempts since the start of the 1993 season, an interception rate of just 3.08 percent (or one every 32.4 passes).
- ➔ The Buffs were an enigma on third down defensively in 2003 and 2004. In 2003, while opponents converted at an ordinary 34.6 percent clip (56-of-162), it's what they accomplished on the ones they made. Opponents gained 966 yards on those 56 makes, or an average of 17.3 per play; otherwise, CU allowed just 61 yards on the other 106 plays, or just 0.6 per. In 2004, opponents were 92-of-205 (44.9%), but gained 1,300 yards on the 92 conversions (14.1 per) and had just 171 yards on 113 misses (1.5). (For comparison, CU had 660 yards on 59 conversions, 11.2 per, and 222 on 112 misses for 2.0.)
-- In 2005, that number was down a bit to 10.2 on the 73 conversions (748 yards total; eight big plays: 40, 38, 37, 33, 24, 22, 21 and 20). On the 124 failures by the opponent, CU has allowed just 180 yards, or 1.5 per try.
-- In 2006, through four games, CU has allowed 241 yards on the 23 conversions, or 10.5 per (and 75 of the yards came on just three plays).
- ➔ Second Down "Conversions." The Colorado defense has shown pretty good wares to date in 2006, and it's obvious in an interesting category. Opponents are just 22-of-84 earning first downs on second down plays (26.2%); that includes a paltry 6-of-17 on 2nd-and-4 or less.
- ➔ Third Down & 36 Inches. Colorado is 6-of-7 on 3rd-&-1 plays in 2006, but is just 10-of-48 from all other distances (20.8%).
- ➔ No Turns Or Sacks. Dating back to 1972, Colorado is 12-0 in games when not allowing a sack or committing a turnover. CU did neither in its 41-20 conquest of Texas A&M, and came back two weeks later and did the same in the 44-13 win over Kansas. CU had last done it in 2001, as it played turnover-free ball twice in allowing no sacks versus San Jose State (51-15) and Nebraska (62-36). In these 12 games, the Buffs have outscored the opponent by 474-207, with only one game decided by less than 17 points (a 21-16 win at Iowa State in 1993).
- ➔ Colorado rarely folds when the opponent is faced with a 3rd-and-20 or longer. Since Miami, Fla., converted on a 3rd-and-20 in its 35-29 win in Boulder in 1993, opponents are just 3-of-72 on 3rd-and-20 or more. The Buff defense had stopped the opponent 51 straight times until UCLA converted a 3rd-and-30 in 2003 (WSU converted on a 3rd-&-23 and ISU on a 3rd-&-20 in 2004). The CU offense is 5-of-63 when it's faced with 3rd-and-20 plus in the same span.
- ➔ Under Dan Hawkins, the Buffs have scored in 8 of 16 quarters (50 percent), as all tolled, dating back to 1993, CU has scored in 477 of its last 632 quarters (76%). Those numbers included 32 of 48 in 2005.

SCORING STREAKS

The Buffs have scored in a school record 214 consecutive games (dating back to 1988, the longest streak in the Big 12), last being shutout on November 12, 1988 at Nebraska (7-0). CU has scored in 114 straight games at home (last shutout: a 28-0 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 15, 1986 in a game where the Sooners did not attempt a single pass). The Buffs have scored in 84 consecutive road games (110 including neutral sites). The Buffs have scored in 134 straight league games (all 84 in Big 12 play, including the four title games, and their final 50 in Big Eight competition, dating back to the '88 shutout at Nebraska). CU has scored in 120 straight games against non-conference opponents (last shutout: a 44-0 loss at home to LSU on September 15, 1979). The home shutout losses to Oklahoma in '86 and LSU in '79 are the only two times CU has not scored at home over the course of the last 252 games (all the way back to 1963). CU has been shutout just seven times in its last 446 games (dating to October 5, 1968), but only four schools have done it: Oklahoma (three times), Nebraska (twice), Louisiana State and Michigan. Big 12 Conference Consecutive Game Scoring Streaks (through Sept. 23): Colorado 214, Nebraska 129, Kansas State 119, Texas Tech 108, Oklahoma 97, Kansas 42, Missouri 40, Iowa State 31, Texas A&M 29, Texas 24, Oklahoma State 11, Baylor 6. CU is the last team to shutout both Kansas State (12-0 in 1996) and Oklahoma State (34-0 in 2005).

SCORING STREAKS II

The school record 214 consecutive games in which Colorado has scored is the sixth longest active streak in the nation. The list of the nine Division I-A schools that have scored in every game since at least the start of the 1993 season, through games of September 23:

School	Streak	Last Shutout	School	Streak	Last Shutout
Michigan	266	Oct. 20, 1984 at Iowa (0-26)	Colorado	214	Nov. 12, 1988 at Nebraska (0-7)

213 AND COUNTING

Colorado's 214-game scoring streak currently is tied for the 12th longest in Division I-A college history:

School	Streak	Dates	Ended By	School	Streak	Dates	Ended By
Brigham Young	361	9/27/1975 - 11/15/2003	Utah	Nebraska	233	1/01/1974 - 11/29/1991	Miami, Fla.
Texas	281	11/29/1980 - 10/02/2004	Oklahoma	Florida State	227	9/10/1988 - present
Washington	271	11/14/1981 - 10/16/2004	USC	Florida	220	11/05/1988 - present
Michigan	266	10/27/1984 - present	Hawaii	219	12/04/1976 - 11/04/95	Colorado State
Washington State	253	10/22/1984 - present	Colorado	214	11/19/1988 - present
Oregon	247	10/05/1985 - present	Arizona	214	9/09/1972 - 12/15/1990	Syracuse
UCLA	245	10/02/1971 - 10/17/1992	Arizona State	Virginia	195	9/15/1984 - 10/28/2000	Georgia Tech

The streak of 214 games started on November 19, 1988; here's a look at some of things in the news that day and week CU began its record scoring run:

- ◆ The media reported on President Ronald Reagan signing three executive orders the previous day in relation to FEMA and catastrophic nuclear accidents. Reagan was wrapping up his second term, as George H.W. Bush was elected into office 11 days earlier on November 8;
- ◆ In the NBA, the Doug Moe-coached Denver Nuggets crushed the L.A. Clippers, 134-107 (Alex English was the highest paid player on Denver, at $1.65 million);
- ◆ Robert Plant of Led Zeppelin fame was touring that night in Tulsa, Okla.;
- ◆ The Escape Club owned the nation's top single on that date with their hit, Wild, Wild West, taking the spot over from the Beach Boys' Kokomo;
- ◆ The Top 10 television shows at the time included: The Cosby Show, Roseanne, A Different World, Cheers, The Golden Girls, Who's The Boss, 60 Minutes, Murder She Wrote, Empty Nest and Anything But Love.
- ◆ L.A. Law's Corbin Bernson married actress Amanda Pays (who?);
- ◆ Christine Onassis, heir and stepdaughter of Jackie O., died of heart failure at the age of 37; and
- ◆ John Lithgow hosted that's evening's Saturday Night Live.

OPPONENTS IN 2006

The 2006 Colorado schedule is once again one of the toughest in the nation, and for the ninth time in 11 seasons, boasts the toughest non-conference slate in the Big 12 Conference. Though the Buffs open with Montana State, their first-ever I-AA opponent, the next three, in order, are comprised of Colorado State, one of the nation's most underrated rivalries, followed by two opponents, both ranked in the preseason, that CU has never played before in Arizona State and Georgia. The Buffs then open league play on the road for the fourth straight year. Colorado has nine '05 bowl teams on its 2006 schedule (Arizona State, Colorado State, Georgia, Iowa State, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Texas Tech) with this year's 12 foes combining overall for a 76-56 record in 2005, a winning percentage of 57.6. Two others just missed out on the postseason after recording 5-6 marks (Baylor, Kansas State), with Montana State a co-champion of the Big Sky Conference in I-AA play. The roll call of 2006 opponents and their 2005 records: Montana State (7-4), Colorado State (6-6), Arizona State (7-5), Georgia (10-3), Missouri (7-5), Baylor (5-6), Texas Tech (9-3), Oklahoma (8-4), Kansas (7-5), Kansas State (5-6), Iowa State (7-5) and Nebraska (8-4).

➤ Twos Are Wild. Colorado has two consecutive home games and two in a row on the road twice in 2006; that hasn't happened on a CU docket since 1974, when the Buffs opened at LSU and Michigan, closed at Oklahoma State and Kansas State, and along the way had back-to-back home games with Iowa State and Oklahoma and then Nebraska and Kansas.

➤ Two In A Row. For the second straight year, CU finishes up non-league play on the road and then opens Big 12 action the very next week also away from home. It also happened in 2003, though there was an open week between playing at Florida State and then at Baylor. It hasn't occurred that frequently in CU history, just eight times since 11-game schedules came into vogue in 1971: 1972, 1979, 1981, 1987, 1994, 2003, 2005 and this year (though in 1975 in happened in reverse, with the first conference game at Oklahoma a week ahead of the last non-league game at Miami, Fla.).

PLAYING ON SUNDAY: IN-THE-PROS

There are 25 Colorado Buffaloes on the 2006 National Football League rosters as of September 25. That's tied for fourth with Texas in the Big 12, behind Nebraska (36), Oklahoma (27) and Texas A&M (26); Kansas State has 20, Oklahoma State 11, Iowa State 9, Texas Tech 9, Baylor 8, Missouri 7, and Kansas 6. Nationally in 2005, CU was tied for the 17th most players produced—Florida State led with 42, followed by Tennessee (37), Georgia and Ohio State (35); CU was 12th in 2004 with 27, tied for 13th in 2003 with 29, and was 10th in 2002, also with 29. CU led the Big 12 in this area in the first four years of the conference's existence, was second in 2002 and 2003, and was third in 2000, 2001, 2004 and 2005. Nationally, CU was in the top four between 1996-99 (fourth in 1996-97-99, third in 1998). AND IN CANADA? Another former Buff is making his living north of the border in the Canadian Football League, as C Marwan Hage played with the Hamilton Tigercats for the second straight year.

A DECADE WORTH OF NUMBERS: Colorado had 46 players drafted between 1993 and 2002, the seventh most in the nation and second most in the Big 12. Tennessee led the way with 60, followed by Florida State (58), Nebraska (53), Ohio State (52), Florida (48), Miami, Fla. (47) and then Colorado.

NOTE: How good was CU's 1994 offense? Ten of the 11 starters were drafted into the NFL (Tony Berti, Rae Carruth, Christian Fauria, Heath Irwin, Chris Naeole, Rashaan Salaam, Kordell Stewart, Bryan Stoltenberg, Derek West and Michael Westbrook), with the 11th signing as a free agent (Lepsis). All played, and three remain on NFL rosters some 11 years later. And six of the '94 defensive starters wound up playing professionally as well.

O-LINEMEN PIPELINE?

In recent times, CU has been a solid conduit to the National Football League when it has come to linebackers, encroaching a bit on the title justifiably thrown Penn State's direction. However, some research has indicated CU may very well be the place to go if an offensive lineman wants to take it to the next level. Dating back to the 1991 NFL draft, or the '87 recruiting class, 19 of 25 players who started at least two years on the Buff offensive line were either drafted or signed as free agents. The list is impressive (with three others who started just one season):

SKED AHEAD

In a quirk that is really just happenstance, Colorado only has one game in 2006 where its opponent will have played on the road the previous week (Kansas' the Jayhawks are at Baylor before hosting the Buffs on Oct. 28; however, CU is also on the road at Oklahoma). Otherwise, with the exception of the Montana State and Nebraska games (both open the previous week), the other nine opponents play at home before lining up against CU, including the second through fifth opponents who play non-BCS schools (CSU: Weber State; ASU: Nevada; UGA: UAB; MU: Ohio). CU will have back-to-back road games twice in '06, joined by Baylor, Missouri, Oklahoma and Texas Tech; Kansas State has none, Oklahoma State actually has three in a row (with an open week after the first one), with the other five schools having back-to-backers away from the confines of home once.

A SCHEDULE FIRST... CU WAS ONE OF THE LAST

When Colorado opened the 2006 season against Montana State (the two last met in 1927 as members of the old Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference) it marked its first game against a non-Division I-A opponent since the current divisional setup was created in 1978. Through 2005, CU had been one of just eight Division I-A schools to play all of its games in its division (no I-AA or II opponents). So the number has dropped by one to seven, with the schools remaining yet to do include Michigan, Michigan State, Notre Dame, Ohio State, USC, UCLA and Washington. There is no non-IA opponent on any future CU schedule at this time.

- 73 of 119 Division I-A teams play a game outside of Division I-A in 2006 (New Mexico State will play two); 26 of the games were season openers. Northwestern (La.) State (Baylor, Kansas, Mississippi) and SE Louisiana (New Mexico State, Southern Miss, Texas Tech) play the most I-A teams; several are playing two.
- 11 Big 12 Conference schools had contests against I-AA opponents, regionalized in several instances (i.e., CU-Montana State; ISU-Northern Iowa; Texas-Sam Houston State). Oklahoma was the lone Big 12 team in 2006 not to have a game outside I-A.

USUALLY IN 'EM

Colorado's usually been in those few games it has lost over the last 18 seasons, as of the 68 losses, 34 have been by eight points or less. Texas (five times), Nebraska (four) and Oklahoma and Kansas State (three each) are the only ones who have handled the Buffs by nine or more points more than twice since 1989. CU has really been dominated from the start only seven times in this stretch (1992 at Nebraska, 1997 at Michigan, 1999 vs. CSU (though CU led in total yardage over 75 percent of the game), 2002 vs. USC, 2004 in the Big 12 title game with Oklahoma, and twice in 2005, both against Texas. K-State ('00), Texas ('01 & '04), WSU ('03), Florida State ('03), Oklahoma State ('04), Miami and Nebraska ('05) put the game out of reach in the third quarter.

GLOSE CALLS USUALLY GOING CU'S WAY

Though 0-2 in close calls in 2006, Colorado is still 11-4 where the final margin has been seven or fewer points, dating back to the start of 2003. That includes the two setbacks this year (CSU, Georgia), and two games in 2005, the season opening 31-28 victory over Colorado State and a 23-20 win at Kansas State, both thanks to the foot of PK Mason Crosby. And starting with a 22-19 come-from-behind win at Oklahoma State in 2001, CU is 15-6 in seven point decisions.

NO CREAMPUFFS HERE

Colorado has the 16th best record in college football since the start of 1989 season (140-68-4). Of these 212 games, Colorado has played 89 ranked teams (42%), the fourth most in the nation during this time frame, with another 32 games against teams receiving significant (10 or more) votes. CU is 40-47-2 against ranked teams during this period (including a 13-19 record on the road); CU is also 100-20-2 against unranked teams. The schedule is also consistent: CU has played the fourth most games against ranked teams the last 12 years (68 of its last 158 contests), going 3-3 in 1993, 5-1 in 1994, 5-2 in 1995, 2-2 in 1996, 1-5 in 1997, 3-3 in 1998, 2-2 in 1999, 0-5 in 2000, 5-2 in 2001, 2-3 in 2002, 2-3 in 2003, 0-4 in 2004, 0-4 in 2005 and 0-2 to date in 2006. NOTE: In 1990, CU became only the second team in NCAA history to win the national championship after playing the nation's toughest schedule (opponents won 63% of their games; Penn State was the first to accomplish the feat, in 1982). CU also played the nation's toughest in 1997: opponents won 67% of their games as the Buffs played both co-national champions, Michigan and Nebraska.

WHAT CAME BACK: 82-3-44

Of the 1,417 rushing yards by the Buffs in 2005, 1,159 were put in the books by players back this fall, or 82 percent; however, returning players accounted for only 93 passing yards (3 percent, all by James Cox). There were 1,218 receiving yards provided by those back in the fold, or 44 percent.

2006 NEW FACES

Almost all the entire football staff is new due to the head coaching change; those who are back in 2006 from the 2006 staff include long-time linebackers coach Brian Cabral, running backs coach Darian Hagan, the technical assistants, Mike Babcock (offense) and Donnell Leomiti (defense), and the operations director, David Hansburg. Changes since the end of spring included Jeff Pitman replacing Greg Finnegan as strength and conditioning coach, along with Miguel Rueda named as head trainer after Steve Willard left the program to enter private business. Biographies on all the new coaches can be found in the 2006 CU football media guide between pages 38-49.

AND ONE "OLD" FACE AS WELL—ILB Jashon Sykes (1998-2001) has returned to CU as a part-time administrative assistant in the football office, mainly helping with recruiting. Sykes, who is 10th all-time at Colorado with 330 tackles, played two seasons with the Denver Broncos and had signed with the Washington Redskins late last fall before being cut this May. In a side note, WR Jeremy Bloom had planned on returning this fall for what would have been his senior year, but his well-documented dream of skiing for the U.S. Olympic Team and playing college football was cut short for good in September 2004 with a final NCAA ruling on the subject.

CU ADDS FOUR HOME-AND-HOME SERIES OVER NEXT 11 SEASONS; 2007, 2009 & 2012 SCHEDULES COMPLETE

Colorado is working to fill its football schedules over the next decade, and since mid-summer, the Buffaloes have agreed to four home-and-home series with a school from each time zone.

In July, Colorado and Miami, Ohio agreed to a home-and-home series that enabled the Buffaloes to complete their 2007 and 2009 schedules. The RedHawks will come to Boulder on September 22, 2007, with the Buffs set to return the game on September 12, 2009 (in Oxford, about 30 miles north of Cincinnati). ESPN has already guaranteed the schools that it will televise the second game. A CU connection with the RedHawks is their athletic director Brad Bates, who was CU's strength and conditioning coach between 1982-84, coming to Boulder with Bill McCartney. It will be the first time the schools will play in football, and just the second game for CU against current Mid-America Conference opponents; the Buffs own a 42-0 win over Kent State in 1977.

On September 16, CU announced home-and-home arrangements with three other schools, all opponents CU has a previous history with in Louisiana State University, the University of Oregon and the University of Utah. Colorado has played the trio a combined 78 times in its history, but there have been no regular season games with any of the three since 1987. Each series has its own special moments and place in school annals.

The CU-LSU series is first up, as the Buffs will travel to Baton Rouge on Sept. 24, 2011, with the Tigers returning the game to Boulder on Sept. 15, 2012. The Buffs and Utes will resume play after a 50-year layoff in their series, as Utah will come to Boulder on Sept. 22, 2012 with Salt Lake City to play host on Sept. 21, 2013. The Oregon series is a bit further out, with Eugene to be the site in 2014 (Sept. 13), with the Ducks' return trip to Boulder set for 2017 (Sept. 16). A closer look:

Colorado-Louisiana State. While LSU leads the all-time series by a 5-1 count, CU's lone victory in the series was most significant. In the 1971 season opener, the unranked and sophomore-laden Buffs traveled to Baton Rouge and upset the No. 9 Tigers, 31-21. That win propelled CU to No. 12 in the polls the following Monday and coach Eddie Crowder's Buffaloes went on to finish 10-2 and No. 3 in the nation. The two first met in the 1962 Orange Bowl, a 25-7 LSU victory, and last played in 1980, when LSU edged the Buffs with a field goal in the final minute to escape with a 23-20 verdict. The Tigers are also the last non-conference team to shutout CU in Boulder in a 44-0 win in 1979.

Colorado-Utah. Other than the 78 games played against in-state rival Colorado State, the 57 games the Buffs have played against the Utes are the second most against any other non-conference school, as CU leads the series, 30-24-3. But the two schools, just 512 miles apart, have not met since 1962 after meeting every year from 1910 through 1958 (and twice in 1943 during World War II). The two first met on Oct. 3, 1903 in Boulder (a 22-0 Colorado win), as Utah was just the third school from outside the state to make a trip to Boulder; when CU returned the game the following season, it was just the second time in Colorado's history that the then Silver & Gold had ever left the state to play a game.

Old-timers will tell you that Utah was CU's first real rival, and after the Utes reeled off nine straight wins between 1925 and 1933 to take a 16-11-1 edge in the series, Utah clearly had staked its claim as the dominant program in the old Rocky Mountain Faculty Athletic Conference. But behind Kayo Lam and the school's first All-American, Byron White, the newly named Buffaloes won the next four. The Buffs won eight straight from 1951 to 1958 to go up by eight on the Utes, and after a two-year hiatus, the series resumed in 1961 when Utah inflicted a painful 21-12 setback on CU—its only regular season loss in a 9-1 campaign (with LSU adding a second loss in the Orange Bowl on New Year's Day). The last game in the series was on Sept. 22, 1962, a 37-21 Utah win in Salt Lake City; thus the series will resume 50 years to the day of the last meeting. The two schools are fierce ski rivals and have won 14 of the last 24 NCAA titles between them since the sport went coed in 1983.

Colorado-Oregon. The Buffs lead the most-entertaining 15-game series by an 8-7 count, as the two last met in the regular season in 1987 but have squared off in bowl games three times since then. The first meeting was in 1949, a 42-14 Oregon win, signaling the start of five home-and-home agreements between the two, including a four-game set between 1984 and 1987. The 1979 game, a 33-19 Duck win, was the first for CU coach Chuck Fairbanks and also the first game televised by a then-fledgling television network called ESPN. The 1984 game in Eugene yielded one of the sadder moments in school history, when tight end Ed Reinhardt suffered a near-fatal brain injury and had his life forever changed, but it also stabled a bond between the two schools that remains to this day. In 1985, after the Buffs opened with a win over CSU to match their entire win total the previous season, one of the first early key moments in the success of the Bill McCartney Era occurred. The Buffs owned a 21-17 lead but UO drove inside the CU 10 in the final minute of the game; on a 4th-and-goal from the CU 3, Mickey Pruitt sacked Duck quarterback Chris Miller as time ran out to preserve the win, and the Buffs went on to finish 7-4 and earn a Freedom Bowl berth. The schools met in the 1996 Cotton Bowl (a 38-6 CU win to cap a 10-2 year under first-year coach Rick Neuheisel), in the 1998 Aloha Bowl (Neuheisel's last game as CU coach as the Buffs won a shootout, 51-43), and in the 2002 Fiesta Bowl; in the latter, it was just the sixth postseason match-up of No. 2 (Colorado) versus No. 3 (Oregon) and the Pac-10 champion Ducks got the best in this one, winning 38-16. Colorado's immediate future football schedules:

New football coach Dan Hawkins was joined by two of the most significant figures in CU football history on the cover of this year's football media guide, Eddie Crowder and Bill McCartney.

Crowder coached the Buffaloes from 1963-73, and after stepping down, continued on as athletic director through the summer of 1984. In 1982, he hired McCartney, who had built an impressive resume as the defensive coordinator at the University of Michigan.

Byron "Whizzer" White is often, and correctly, credited with putting CU football on the map in the 1930s. Coach Dal Ward led the Buffalo athletic program in its next step to prominence, into the Big Seven Conference in 1948, where his teams often gave national powerhouse Oklahoma fits during its supreme reign in the 1950s.

One of the Sooners' quarterbacks was Crowder, an All-American in 1952. Little did he know at the time that 11 years later at the age of 32 he would be the man called upon to right Colorado's football ship. Not only did he restore respectability and national respect to the program, he took the Buffaloes to new heights, as his 1971 team finished No. 3 in the nation—behind Big Eight rivals Nebraska and Oklahoma, to this day still the only occasion one conference has boasted the top three teams in the final rankings.

Crowder, who also assumed the AD duties in 1965, retired from coaching two years later and saw his program to continue to achieve decent success under Bill Mallory between 1974-78. He then hired Chuck Fairbanks as head coach following the '78 season, but Fairbanks couldn't muster the same kind of success that he enjoyed in his six years as Oklahoma's coach (1967-72) before moving on to the NFL. After three seasons, he left Boulder for the fledgling USFL.

McCartney wasn't on many people's radar back in 1982, but Crowder knew of his pedigree. A surprise hire to some as he was an unknown outside of Big Ten circles, Coach "Mac" laid out a plan upon his hiring of what it would take for Colorado to return to national prominence.

- "I promise you a program based on integrity and honesty, with the top priority graduating students. That's how we're going to measure success."
- "I see Colorado as being a lot like Michigan in being able to attract the superior student-athlete. Our standards here are better than most, but that has to be looked at as an advantage."
- "You achieve what you emphasize. Until you set specific goals, you're liable to miss opportunities that come up along the way. We will know what our goals are from the start."
- "I can only predict how Colorado will play: with enthusiasm, togetherness and tenacity. Every single squad that I coach here will be team-oriented."
- "We need to enhance our reputation here (in Colorado). You make your living at home first. We want the high school players and coaches to develop loyalties to us, not out-of-state schools. We need to reach out to the communities in the state, then we'll work on other areas of the country."
- My family and I want to sink roots in this place. We took a vote on coming here, and I told them where I stood but that everybody's vote counted the same. It was 6-0. We plan on being here as long as you want us."

Those were seven of his statements made in the first few days of his tenure, and all seven came true. In fact, the above list was included in a book written about CU's national championship season (now out of print). McCartney became CU's winningest all-time coach (93-55-5), surpassing stadium namesake Fred Folsom (77-23-2) and Crowder, the man who hired him (67-49-2).

Among his many top players, Crowder landed Boulder's Anderson brothers, Dick and Bobby, now both members of the College Football Hall of Fame with Bobby's coming induction this December. McCartney recruited the most eventual All-Americans to CU, as well as the most future NFL stars. And not among those was perhaps the best player in CU history, or number 1A if White is considered one, was Darian Hagan, the quarterback who made CU's option offensive attack downright explosive. White put the Buffs on the map; Hagan and Co. took the school to the pinnacle with three straight Big Eight titles and the national crown in 1990.

Hawkins is a humble guy, and while the trio posed in a variety of formations, he has insisted that the photo that makes the cover be in proper chronological order: Crowder, McCartney and then himself. "They are THE guys," he said. "I haven't done anything yet. It's a privilege to be in the same photo with Coach Ed and Coach Mac." It was actually Hawkins' idea to share the spotlight with the men before him.

Crowder appeared on CU's media cover just once—his first season in 1963; McCartney also appeared his first year (1982), and subsequently graced the cover in 1983, 1985 and 1986.

GRADLE OF COACHES

There are three current head coaches in Division I college football who have had assistant coaching stints at the University of Colorado, and all three have enjoyed great success. Les Miles had a good run at Oklahoma State and is running the show at LSU (at Colorado between 1982-86); Gregg Brandon is the head man at Bowling Green (1999-2000) while Karl Dorrell has the reins at UCLA (two CU stints: 1992-93, 1995-97). Since Bill McCartney took over the program in 1982, CU has sent many an assistant coach into the head coaching ranks; Gerry DiNardo was the first, as after his CU stint between 1982-89 he went on to coach Vanderbilt, LSU and Indiana. Lou Tepper (CU: 1983-87), head coach at Illinois for five years and is now the head man at Edinboro (Pa.) State; Gary Barnett, who was an assistant at CU from 1984-91 was head coach at Northwestern from 1992-98 and then at CU from 1999 through 2005; Jim Caldwell, Wake Forest (at CU from 1982-84), Steve Logan, East Carolina (1985-86), Rick Neuheisel, at CU and Washington (1994), Bob Simmons, Oklahoma State (1988-94) and Ron Vanderlinden, Maryland (1983-91). All were assistants under McCartney, CU's all-time winningest head coach (93-55-5 between 1982-94). In 2003, Mike Hankwitz, served as Arizona's interim head coach for the last two months of the season; he was at CU for 10 years (1985-94). Tom Cable (1998-99) was head coach for four seasons at Idaho, as he coached under Neuheisel and Barnett. Dorrell is the only one above to coach as an assistant under both McCartney and Neuheisel. In addition, former CU player Pete Shinnick ('88) served seven seasons as head coach at Azusa Pacific and took a new position for 2006 as the head man at North Carolina-Pembroke.

HISTORICALLY

Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes are in their 117th season of competition with an all-time record of 650-406-36 in 1,092 games. CU currently stands 15th on the all-time win list and is 22nd in all-time winning percentage (.612; 20th for those schools with at least 50 seasons in Division I-A). Only Texas, Oklahoma and Nebraska from the Big 12 rank ahead of CU on each list, and only 12 Division I schools have played more seasons of intercollegiate football than Colorado. In Boulder, the Buffs are 280-134-10 in their 83rd season on the "hilltop" (Folsom Field). Against Big 12 opposition, CU is 244-206-13 against the other 11 members of the conference, formed in 1996.

MONTHLY TAB

Dating back to 1989, Colorado is 43-20 in its last 63 September games, a pretty decent record considering the quality of non-conference schedule CU annually plays. The Buffs are 46-21-2 in their last 69 October games when conference play annually blooms, and are 48-18-1 in their last 67 November games (43-9 in November against all-comers aside from Nebraska, going 4-9-1 against NU in turkey month). CU is 5-6 in December games since 1993, including bowls, and is 2-2-1 in August games in its history.

OVERTIME

Colorado is 3-3 all-time in overtime games; the Buffs became the 84th team in Division I-A to play an overtime game when it played its first ever extra session affair against Missouri in 1999. Here's a chart summarizing the Buffs in overtime:

RANKED "UNDEFEATEDS" FALL AT FOLSOM

Nine ranked, undefeated teams have lost their "0" in the loss column at Folsom Field since 1989. The last was Kansas State in 2002, which came to Boulder ranked No. 13 at 4-0 and lost, 35-31. Two bit the dust in 2001: Nebraska (11-0, No. 1 in the BCS and No. 2 in the polls) dropped a 62-36 game to the Buffs, as did Texas A&M (5-0, No. 20), 31-21. In 1998, No. 22 Texas Tech (6-0) fell to CU 19-17; in 1995, No.3 Texas A&M (2-0) lost, 29-21; in 1994, No. 10 Wisconsin (2-0) was crushed, 55-17; and in 1990, No. 12 Washington (3-0) left a 20-14 loser. In 1989, No. 10 Illinois (2-0) lost 38-7 and No. 3 Nebraska (8-0) fell, 27-21.

STREAKING

Colorado has active multiple win streaks going against 14 Division I-A schools. The list: 5—Air Force, Kansas; 4—San Jose State; 3—Minnesota, Utah State; 2—California, Iowa, Kansas State, Louisiana-Monroe, Notre Dame, Oregon State, UCLA and Wyoming. CU's longest current losing streak is to Southern Cal (5), followed by LSU and Oklahoma (both 4) and Michigan State and Texas (3 each).

THE BUFFS & COLLEGE FOOTBALL HARDWARE

Colorado is in an elite group when it comes to claiming college football's prestigious trophies dating back to the 1990 season. A proliferation of awards has emerged since the late 1980s, and the Buffs are near the top of the list when it comes to collecting these statues. CU has had seven different players win nine trophies over the last 15 seasons, which is the ninth most nationally when it comes to trophies. But when it comes to different players who have been honored, only Miami (9), Ohio State (9), Oklahoma (9) and Nebraska (8) top the Buffs' seven. The postseason "hardware" includes the Heisman Trophy and the Lombardi, Maxwell, Walter Camp, Butkus, Thorpe, O'Brien, Unitas, Groza, Biletnikoff, Doak Walker, Nagurski, Bednarik, Mackey, Tatupu, Ray Guy, Rimington, Hendricks and ARA Sportsmanship awards (on-field player awards only—if the Draddy Award was included, the Buffs would have one more on each list). The list of schools that have had winners between 1990 and 2005 (players only; LSU and Michigan players split the 2004 Rimington Award and thus got ½ in the trophy count):

INSIDE-THE-POLL NUMBERS

Colorado has been ranked 12 times in the last 18 seasons in the Associated Press preseason football poll (just missing three of the times, No. 27 in 2001 and No. 32 in both 2003 and 2005). CU had appeared in every AP preseason ballot between 1989 and 1997, ranked in the top 15 each year, before not gaining mention in the '98 poll following a 5-6 season. The Buffs reappeared in the '99 poll at No. 15, and rose to No. 14 prior to the season-opening loss to CSU. Only CU, Florida, Florida State, Michigan and Nebraska have been ranked 15th or higher at least 11 times in these 15 years, and CU is one of only 10 teams to be ranked in as many as 12 of the last 17 preseason polls. Number of times ranked in the Associated Press Preseason Poll, 1989-2006: Florida State 18, Michigan 18, Ohio State 18, Miami, Fla. 17, Tennessee 17, Nebraska 15, Notre Dame 14, Penn State 14, Colorado 12, Alabama 12.

LONG STAY

Colorado was one of only two teams to be ranked in every poll (both the Associated Press and Coaches, be it UPI or USA Today/CNN-ESPN) from the 1989 preseason through Oct. 4, 1997 (143 AP polls, 138 coaches). Only Nebraska could also make that claim (CU was second only to the Huskers, as Nebraska had been ranked in 265 straight polls when CU hit the 143 mark). In this span, NU held the top spot 16 times and CU seven, with NU winning two national titles and Colorado one.

Associated Press Poll

MOST TOP 5 FINISHES (1989-2005): Florida St. 12, Miami 8, Nebraska 5, COLORADO 4, Ohio St. 4, Oklahoma 4, USC 4, Tennessee 4, Alabama 3, Florida 3, Notre Dame 3.

MOST TOP 10 FINISHES (1989-2005): Florida St. 12, Florida 10, Miami 9, Michigan 8, Nebraska 8, Tennessee 8, Ohio State 7, COLORADO 6, Alabama 6, Kansas St. 6, Oklahoma 5.

...AND THE RETURN

CU was out of the polls for an 11-week period once departing after 143 weeks ('97-98), but came back with a vengeance. When Colorado reappeared in both the AP and USAT/ESPN polls at No. 16 on Sept. 6, 1998 it marked the third highest debut in a poll since the AP ballot expanded to 25 teams in 1989. CU went from receiving votes to No. 16, the second highest CU has ever debuted after not being ranked in the preseason; back in 1971, the Buffs went into Baton Rouge and defeated No. 9 LSU, 31-21. CU appeared at No. 8 in the UPI-Coaches poll and at No. 12 on the AP ballot.

15 OUT OF 18

Colorado defeated at least one top 25 team for 12 consecutive seasons between 1988 and 1999, the second longest active streak in the nation behind Florida State for the latter half of the span. Colorado didn't go down easy when the streak ended in 2000, losing to five ranked teams by a combined 45 points (3, 3, 23, 14 and 2). The Buffs started a new streak in 2001, doing so with purpose as they tied the school record for most ranked teams defeated in a single season with five. CU then defeated two ranked teams in both 2002 and 2003 to make it 15 out of 16 years with at least one win over a ranked opponent, but the smaller run ended as the Buffs went 0-4 in both 2004 and 2005. CU defeated at least three ranked teams in six of those 12 years, including five twice (1990, 1995). CU has defeated at least two in nine of the last 12 years (and three ranked foes five of those seasons).

TV LAND

Colorado has now had 133 of its last 200 games dating back to 1990 broadcast nationally or regionally (67 percent). That includes three games this year, 10 games in 2005, nine games in 2004, seven games in 2003, 12 in 2002, 10 games in 2001, plus 7 in 2000, 9 in both 1998 and 1999, 10 in 1996 and 1997. Since 1996, when the Big 12 began, 96 of CU's 127 games have been either nationally or regionally televised, an impressive 76 percent (the second most in the Big 12 Conference in that time frame). In addition, CU has had 21 of its last 25 non-conference games televised on a national or regional basis.

CARRYING THE TV TORCH

Colorado and Texas started carrying the torch in the 1990s when it came to scheduling regular season games against traditionally ranked opponents, games most likely to be selected for TV and making the two hits of league revenue that come with it. Here are the counts (and records) since 1990 when it comes to playing ranked non-league teams (not including bowls): Colorado 27 (13-13-1), Texas 22 (7-13-2), Nebraska 13 (8-5), Oklahoma 13 (6-7), Texas A&M 12 (4-8), Texas Tech 12 (0-12), Baylor 9 (2-7), Missouri 9 (1-8), Iowa State 9 (1-8), Kansas 6 (0-6), Oklahoma State 5 (0-5) and Kansas State 3 (1-2).

FOLSOM FIELD AGCOLADE The Sports Turf Management Association named Folsom Field as its 2002 "Football Field of the Year," the first time CU has ever earned this prestigious award. Jason DePaepe, CU's athletic turf manager, officially accepted the award in San Antonio. Those who judge the competition were impressed with DePaepe and his staff's aggressive maintenance program, as the field is easily one of the best in college football, if not all sports.

BUFF BLEMISHES

Colorado has a history of inflicting blemishes on some of the teams who have traditionally fared well at home. The top five home records last decade (1990-99) belonged to Florida State (55-1-1), Nebraska (62-3), Florida (57-4), Texas A & M (55-4-1) and Kansas State (57-5-1). That's a combined 287-17-3; but of those 20 losses or ties, CU was responsible for five of them. CU won at Nebraska in 1990, at Texas A & M in 1996, and was 2-2-1 at Kansas State in the 90s. The Buffs also snapped the Aggies 22-game home winning streak—started late in 1996, after losses to CU then Texas Tech. And in 2001, CU won at Kansas State, snapping a 58-game home winning streak by the Wildcats against unranked teams, and was only the second KSU home loss in a 29 game span. CU almost added Georgia to this list in 2006, but fell 14-13 after leading 13-0 entering the fourth quarter.

18 OF 21

The Buffs now have 18 winning (regular) seasons in the last 21 years, including 2005, matched only by a handful of schools across the nation. The exceptions came in 1997, 2000 and 2003; in 1986, CU was 6-5 in the regular season but finished 6-6 after losing to Baylor in the Bluebonnet Bowl. CU has been invited to bowls in 17 of the previous 21 seasons, staying home in only 1987, 1997, 2000 and 2003.

OFFENSE & DEFENSE

Through the years, there are always a few players who wind up playing on both sides of the ball. DT John Guydon was the latest to do so, seeing action on defense (13 snaps at tackle) and offense (3 snaps at guard) at Texas on October 15, 2005; it was the first time it happened for a complete series with no gimmicks or special situations since WR Michael Westbrook played a series at safety against Baylor in 1993. DE James Garee also trotted in on offense in 2005, catching a pass as an end at Miami. DT Sam Wilder had been the last before 2005, as he caught a 9-yard pass against Kansas State in 2002. DT Justin Bannan, did the same, catching a 12-yard TD pass on his only play at Missouri in 2000. CB Ben Kelly tried tailback in 1999 at Texas Tech; he finished with three yards on one carry (a nice 5-yard run was wiped out by a penalty). Between 1994 and 2005, several Buffs played on both sides of the ball, as offensive linemen often played on the goal line or short yardage defense units—OG Heath Irwin, OG Clint Moore, OG Chris Naeole, OT Melvin Thomas and OG Brad Bedell all did it at one time or another between 1993 and 1998. In 1990, OLBs Alfred Williams and Kanavis McGhee played some tight end in a 64-3 win over Kansas State (Williams caught a pass for 17 yards, McGhee didn't catch the one thrown his way). The last offensive skill player to swing over and try some defense was Westbrook (four snaps at strong safety) against Baylor in 1993.

WHY CU AND NOT UC?

A question often asked of many former Big Eight schools: Why is it the University of Colorado, but the moniker is CU and not UC? (The same applies at Kansas—KU, Missouri—MU, Nebraska—NU and Oklahoma—OU). "Midwestern casualness," said CU historian, the late Fred Casotti. It has always been this way at Colorado, for whatever reason, and at the other four—but seemingly nowhere else in the USA. In the 1950s, there was a concerted effort to eliminate the use of "CU" on the Boulder campus, both as a symbol and in speech, but Casotti said that no one would buy into it. "Nobody would change," he said. "It's easier to say than U of C, UC sounds like slang or something (as in 'you see'), and it was traditional. By trying to eliminate it, they reinforced it."

HISTORY OF THE "COLORADO"

As in the south end zone, that is. In 1967, the stadium was lowered when the track was removed, and that area remained basically a dirt hill. Former long-time senior associate A.D. Jon Burianek said that we tried to grow grass and bushes there, but none took. The first artificial field was installed during the summer of 1971, and that area was then covered with asphalt and the large, block COLORADO was painted on it, then in all-white block lettering. Trim was later added, and at one time, when blue was one of the school colors, the end zone as well was painted blue instead of the familiar black.

QUARTERBACK HISTORY LESSON

The three-way competition for the starting quarterback job this year was only the fifth real battle in the last 15 years at Colorado. The last time had been in 2003, when walk-on Joel Klatt earned the nod; in 2000, the competition between Zac Colvin and Bobby Pesavento raged from the start of spring ball to the final week of August camp. Colvin was named the opening game starter but four weeks into the season, freshman Craig Ochs came in during the second quarter of the Kansas State game and did not relinquish the role the remainder of the season. In 1998, the first real battle in six years, juniors Mike Moschetti and Jeremy Weisinger and sophomore Adam Bledsoe duked it out for the starting role. Moschetti won the job and Weisinger subsequently transferred to Texas A & M, where he became a free safety. Moschetti was the first junior college transfer to start a game at quarterback for Colorado since 1976, when Jeff Austin started the first three games of the year. Back in 1992, it was a four-way battle between a hero off the bench in junior Vance Joseph, an unknown sophomore named Kordell Stewart, the younger brother of a Heisman winner, Koy Detmer, and a transfer from Illinois, Duke Tobin. Stewart emerged as the winner and held the reins for three years, with Detmer the heir in 1995. John Hessler, of course, subbed for an injured Detmer most of that season and assumed control his senior year (1997). Darian Hagan had piloted the ship from 1989-91.

AND MORE—In looking back at CU history, the Buffs have usually had a capable backup quarterback that became a household name. As far back as 1971, when 5-foot-7 Joe Duenas subbed for an injured Ken Johnson to lead CU to a 56-13 win over Wyoming in the second game of the season, Colorado second-team signal callers have made names for themselves. Two years later, David Williams and Clyde Crutchmer duelled for starting honors; in 1976, Austin replaced Jeff Knapple on occasion after Knapple wrestled the starting job away from him; in 1979, Charlie Davis and Bill Solomon battled back and forth; in the early 1980s, Steve Vogel and Randy Essington alternated as starters for three years, with Vogel emerging as CU's all-time passing leader at the time. In the last 1980s, there was the run of Sal Aunese replacing Mark Hatcher, Hagan replacing Aunese, Charles Johnson and Joseph both subbing for an injured Hagan on occasion; Stewart replacing Hagan, and he himself being replaced by Detmer and Tobin due to injuries; and of course, Hessler subbing for Detmer after Detmer replaced Stewart. Perhaps the best example of this came in 2001, when Bobby Pesavento took over the second half of the year for an injured Craig Ochs, and he helped lead the Buffs to their first Big 12 Conference title. That run included Pesavento steering the Buffs to wins over No. 2 Nebraska and No. 3 Texas. And in 2002, Robert Hodge has had to replace Ochs, after Ochs suffered the third concussion of his CU career and eventually left the team.

THE AVERAGE BUFF

The 102 players on the 2006 opening week roster (active and inactive, as of September 2) totaled 7,472 inches in height and weighed 23,220 collective pounds, or an average of 6-1¼, 228 pounds per player, slightly smaller but heavier than the 2005 average of 6-3, 218, though in line with other figures this decade: 6-2, 223 in 2004; 6-2¼, 226 in 2003; 6-2¼, 227 in 2002; and 6-2, 227 in both 2000 and 2001). The 7,472 inches translate roughly into 623 feet or 208 yards, the distance of the par-three No. 3 hole at Royal St. George's in England, while the weight of 23,220 pounds slightly exceeds (by 220) pounds the amount allowed to be trucked on most roads in the northeastern United States. Here's a look at position-by-position averages (LW—denotes lettermen):

Position	Players	LW	Height	Weight	Position	Players	LW	Height	Weight
Cornerbacks	10	5	5-11	186	Quarterbacks	4	2	6-2	208
Defensive Ends	5	4	6-3	241	Safeties	7	5	6-0	194
Defensive Tackles	7	2	6-3	276	Special Teams Snappers	1	0	6-1	235
Fullbacks	3	0	5-11	233	Tailbacks	6	2	5-10	202
Inside Linebackers	10	4	6-1	235	Tight Ends	9	1	6-5	241
Kickers/Punters	5	2	6-0	193	Wide Receivers	14	7	6-0	186
Offensive Linemen	16	7	6-3	293	Team	102	45	6-1¼	228
Outside Linebackers	5	4	6-2	220

The most popular letter to begin surnames is the letter B (15), followed by S (13) and H (10); five last names are similar, but none are brothers (Adams, Brown, Jones, Sanders, Washington). There is no "popular" first name (there are three Daniel's); unique ones include Cha'pelle, Dusty, Jalil, Samson, Taj and Thaddaeus.

AROUND THE NATION

Colorado gets most of its players from primarily three states: Colorado, California and Texas (75 percent of the entire roster—76 of 102 players). The roll call of state producers for the Buffs: Colorado 31, California 30, Texas 14, Hawai'i 4, Florida 2, Iowa 2, Louisiana 2, Michigan 2, Minnesota 2, Nebraska 2, Oklahoma 2, Alabama 1, Arizona 1, Idaho 1, Illinois 1, Kentucky 1, Missouri 1, New York 1, Tennessee 1 and Washington 1. That's 20 states total that produced the make-up of this year's team.

ORIGINAL 2006 TEAM MAKE-UP

The 102 players listed on the opening week roster on September 2 broke down into 24 seniors, 23 juniors, 18 sophomores and 37 freshmen (including 16 redshirt frosh). An expanded breakdown:

THREE SENIORS NAMED 2006 CAPTAINS

Dan Hawkins announced at the conclusion of fall camp that three seniors would serve as team captains for the 2006 season: PK Mason Crosby, OG Brian Daniels and ILB Thaddaeus Washington. "They are obviously very good players and they have the respect of the team," Hawkins said. "They lead by example in the classroom, on the field and in the weight room. The coach can set the tone, but those guys have to carry things out in the trenches."

➤ CROSBY is the first placekicker and just the second solely special teams performer to be named a CU team captain, preceded only by another special teams All-American, punter Barry Helton in 1987. Crosby, a two-time All-Big 12 performer and a consensus All-American in 2005, opted to stay at CU for his senior year instead of declaring for the NFL draft and is in position to exit with almost every major scoring record in school history. The '05 Lou Groza Award runner-up also could see his name join the others on the façade at Folsom Field's press box if he earns a third all-conference accolade.

➤ DANIELS, a fourth-year senior from Evergreen (Mullen High School), set a school record in 2003 when he made nine starts, the most-ever by a true freshman offensive lineman in CU history. He is bidding to become just the fourth offensive lineman in school annals to start for four seasons; he would join OT Pat Ryan (1984-87), OG Joe Garten (1987-90) and OT Justin Bates (1999-2002).

➤ WASHINGTON, a fifth-year senior from Marrero, La., has 231 career tackles, and like many before him who learned under the guidance of another former CU captain, linebacker coach Brian Cabral, he has his sights set on passing his coach's career tackle total (Cabral had 297 for CU between 1975-78). He is also bidding to become the first linebacker to lead the Buffaloes in tackles in back-to-back seasons since 1993-94, when Butkus Award runner-up Ted Johnson accomplished the feat.

DEPTH CHART

A note about CU's depth: in-season, depth charts reflect change and generally do not announce it unless there are long-term injuries; also, the coaches use "groupings" at certain positions (i.e. receiver-tight end-tailback-fullback), and often a group enters the game to run a play that does not match the depth.
